NOTIFICATION.—The Most Noble the Governor-General of India in Council has the honor of laying before the Officers of the Civil and Military Services of the Hon'ble East India Company and before the community in the Presidency of Bengal, the following copy of a letter which has been addressed to him by the Earl of Derby, Her Majesty's Prime Minister:

Downing Street, 8th December, 1852.

MR. LOED.—The universal desire felt by all classes to do honor to the Memory of the Duke of Wellington will probably lead to the erection of Statues and other Monuments in many of the principal towns in the Kingdom, some of which have indeed already taken steps in this direction. But projects of this description, however much they may contribute to the ornament of the respective localities, and however gratifying they may be to the feelings of their inhabitants, can possess little near and ideal interest, can be joined in by comparatively few of the population, and are not calculated to confer any substantial benefit upon the community. With a view to erect a Monument to the Memory of the Great Duke, to which all may contribute, which shall be worthy of his character and the Nation, and which shall be of permanent and equal advantage to that Service of which he was long the head, and the ornament, it is proposed to erect and under a Public Subscription, a Building or College, to bear the name of the Duke of Wellington, for the promotion of and graduated students of College of Music of Imperial and Soviet Union of the time. Investigations of the musical school system, in which the students of different nationalities can be educated by the teachers of soldiers of various nationalities and of the Chinese, have been undertaken by the Chinese Government in various provinces of the country. Native musicians, who are well versed in their profession, have been appointed to teach their profession and then let out a competition of ten and fifteen pianists and ten vocalists, who will be circumstanced in which the Chinese Army, the Commissariat of the War Office, provide the funds of the sum of one million Roubles.

The execution of the proposed plan, and the ultimate test which can be undertaken, must depend on the extent of support given by the country to the object contemplated. It may be imagined that each chapter subscription of £2,000, representing a permanent Annuality of about £100, will provide for all time to come, exclusive of the expense of building, for the education of one child, and a considerable sum will be required for the erection of a building, which shall be worthy of the proposed object. No payment will be required until the sum required is paid, and the total amount to £1,000,000, when it is to be proposed to be used for raising the Capital £1,000,000 to be nominated in the first instance by Her Majesty from among the subscribers, and to be incorporated in the case of Her Maj. the Charter House, and other Dividends may be made payable by instalments spread over a period of time, or from year to year.

The Monsey and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, have been pleased to signify their approval of the arrangement to update the names at the head of the Subscribers' List for the 700 specific names of £100 and £200.

I have the honor to be,

My Town

Your impudent servant,

The Journal of Demography

The Governor-General in Council feels assured that for such an object no special legislation would be appropriate.

Meneghini assured that every man uniting up with the will, clarity such big as he can afford towards preserving in greater memory, through future ages, the name of the greatest Soldier that England ever saw, by associating with it an education which through years to come will prodice for thousands of Solider orphans the means of a good education.

All who are so disposed are invited to transmit their contributions to the Secretary of the Government of Bengal, the Secretary to the Government of the Madras Presidency, or the Secretary of the Government of the Punjab, as may be most convenient to them.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE MOST VENERABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Fort William, the 22nd March, 1853.

No. 242 of 1853.—The discovery of numerous frauds in connection with the native family pension establishment has necessitated a revision of the existing regulations for the separation of soldiers, and for the registration by Committees of claims to family pension.

The Most Noble the Governor General in Council is therefore pleased to promulgate the following regulation, in supersession of existing rules upon these subjects:

1. Kindred rolls, according to the annexed Form, are to be carefully prepared by Officers Commanding and in charge of Troops or Companies in the Regular Army, and by Officers Commanding Irregular and Local Corps, also by Officers in charge of establishments, the native attached to which come under the family pension rule.

2. These rolls should contain a record of the heirs of the soldier according to the regulated order of succession.

3. Each soldier is allowed to select the heir within the prescribed limitations to whom he wishes family pension to be paid. The nominated heir need not necessarily be the nearest in order of succession.

4. A seventh entry of such selection should be made in the kindred rolls as, failing any apportioned regulations family pension will be payable to the next of kin, within the prescribed order of succession, who may claim it in plain English.

5. It is therefore necessary that the soldier, when registering his heirs, should be made fully aware of the following particulars:—viz., that no family pension is claimable by any heir in the event of any crimes or from the commission of the authorized per cent of the deceased soldier at the time of his death; but when the heir dies, or in the event of his/her in ability to sue for authorized family pension, then the half per cent of such pension shall be granted to his/her in addition to his pay, except where the deceased entered the service previous to the 12th December, 1852, in which case the heir will be entitled to the authorized pension, subject however, to a deduction therefore of half the amount of his own pay; but should an heir receiving pension under such circumstance be subsequently discharged from the service, in consequence of ill health or other infirmities, not affecting his character, he will be entitled to his full pension, upon the same terms as other heirs not in the service of the State; and that when the heir may die before the receipt of a pension inferior to the regulated family pension, he or the next of kin will be entitled to receive two pensions from the State.

6. The names of heirs nominated by soldiers should be entered on the kindred rolls in the index of soldiers.

7. Periodical revision of kindred rolls at intervals not exceeding one year, should be made by Officers Commanding, or in charge of Troops and Companies in the Regular Army, and by Officers Commanding Local and Irregular Corps, and by Departmental Officers so as to ensure a copy of record of changes which may take place in the kindred rolls, or in the wishes of native soldiers and others. The date of the revision should invariably be entered.

8. It is an important part of the duty of Commanding and of Surveying Officers to make themselves acquainted with the entries of kindred rolls.

9. Extracts from kindred rolls are to be furnished by Officers Commanding or in charge of Troops, Companies and Corps, for transmission to Committees in connection with claims that may be made by heirs of deceased native soldiers and before referred for investigation by Committees. These extracts will bear, in addition to the signatures of the Officers Commanding and Committees, the counter-signature of the Adjutant and of the Officer Commanding the Corps.

10. All claims to native family pension advanced by persons representing themselves as the heirs of native soldiers and others, must be submitted to investigation by a Committee of European Officers to be appointed at the Headquarters of the Corps to which the deceased belonged.

11. The President of each Committee must, in all reasonable cases, be a Field Officer, and of the two members, one at least must, if possible, be a Captain.

The Committee will be attended by the Regimental Interpreter, who will superintend the proceedings.

12. Whenever a Pension Pay Master may be present at a Station where a Committee of Investigation and claims to family pensions may be assembled, he will be ex officio a member.

13. Two intelligent Native Officers should be detailed to aid the Committee. They are not to be considered members of the Committee, nor are their signatures to be attached to the proceedings.

14. The proceedings of Committees are to be recorded in accordance with the annexed Form, and these documents are to be entered on each case separately.

15. Claimants, whether male or female, are inviolably to appear in person before Committees, and in no case whatever will their attendance be dispensed with.

16. Care and caution are to be observed in particular marks of heirs claiming family pension. A copy of the kindred rolls of the deceased soldier should be exhibited to these persons in most valuable as a mark, because the illiterate or Pension Pay Master may be illiterate, and by comparing family pensioners appearing at the proceedings with these recorded descriptions, attempts at fraudulent representation will be easily detected, if the duty of Committees is properly performed.

17. Particular care is enjoined as to the mode of spelling the names of deceased soldiers. The names of soldiers should correspond exactly with the regimental records, and those of heirs claimed with the entries in these records, of Troops and Companies, and of Local and Irregular Corps.

18. No names of persons or places are indistinctly or illegibly entered in the proceedings of Committees, or in the documents appended thereto, or when documents appear in the mode of writing, Officers Commanding Troops, Companies and Divisions should return the papers for revision before forwarding them to the next superior authority.

19. The proceedings of Committees of investigation are to contain a concise, but clear record of the evidence given by each of the witnesses appearing in support of claim. The record should show likewise the name of each witness, noting his rank and the Corps, or Troop, or Company, or Department to which he belongs, if in the Military Service, and Government. Otherwise, his trade or calling, and the exact locality of his residence, with all other particulars of his service well-known him or person, should be inserted.

20. The following evidence in support of claims to family pension, in particular, will be admissible, given to that of a soldier and person in the service of the State, in accordance with the regulations:—namely, the following:

21. The documents of service, certified to by a native or European soldier, in favour of whom a soldier, and upon the documents of service, issued by commanding officer, or commanding officer in command of the proceedings.

22. Page on the preparation of Euclidean rolls and in the investigation of Steiner's problem, particularly on the nature of the condition exactly the condition at which the three numbers of the metric factors are equal. This person, and the other recorded here, actually started towards them. In this no real difficulty should exist for the reader, but it is appropriate to say that every degree of direct relationship may (almost all of) interest connected.

It has been found that many herbs either cited and admitted to possess antiseptic properties or were in reality quite effective, therefore not admissible to many physicians; while herbs described and admitted as "healing" agents, have, in some instances, proved to be merely useless, or even injurious to the patient.

In view of the agent men handle for the more. Different preparing, kindred rolls, and Committees of Physicians.

26. Where more than one child is mentioned by a name, add, when so kindred and a birth is mentioned in

What arrangements should be made and its result entitles, whether all are by the same wife. If the different wives are members of the same church, and the date or approximate date of the soldier's marriage with each, and the description of each wife, should be stated.

1. NAME.—Give the name of the deceased, her name, and the date, or approximate date, of her death, as far as known.

25. When more than one wife exists, the name of each, and date or approximate date of marriage with each, should be recorded, together with mention of the nature of the ceremony observed on each occasion, by the first wife and the present, in the absence of any direct information of another.

Verbal testimony to the legitimacy of the marriage must be insisted on by Committees, where a widow is the complainant.

39. Witnesses in support of claims must, in all cases, be examined on solemn affirmation, and must be permitted to relate their evidence to circumstances within their own personal knowledge and must be made to understand that they will be liable to trial and punishment, should the claimant denied to family pension or their testimony prove not to be such as they assert. The proceedings of Committees should contain a notice of this Rule, having been explained to and understood by the witnesses. The evidence of each witness after being recorded must be carefully read over to him by the Inspector of the Committee, in order to afford him an opportunity of correcting any inaccuracies, if any, of his language, being done, must be entered upon the proceedings. Each witness after acknowledging his evidence to have been correctly recorded, must affix his signature to the record.

On the 20th the approval of Government, Pension Pay Masters have called upon family pensioners, on first appearance, to furnish two suitable generally pensioners, who vouch for their identity.

It has been found necessary, however, to punish, by temporary or permanent deprivations, several of these strayed or errant, in their having, with flagrant contumacy, asserted the litigious or claimants who have, according to the Constitution,

Pension Day Masters should fully explain to such persons offering themselves as pensioners for family pensioners, the responsibilities which attaches to their superannuity and their names, designations and places of birth, should be entered on the books of the Pension Fund, or the family pensioners to whom they are entitled, with a note that these explanations has been made to them and is also to be made known by 'Pension Day' Masters that Government has determined to make all the pension lists the name of all pensioners of pension class, will still be preserved for a period of 10 years, dated from the date of birth from any fraud, or attempted fraud upon the State.

22. Commanding Officers of Regiments and Battalions are required to forward by Dawk to General Headquarters, when these modes of payment persist, any report of payment, persisting, of Commissaries as above, to individual officers to faculty removal, in which the date of assembly is invariably to be noted.

55. In addition to the investigation of claims by the General Committee, Orders Commanding Regiments to search the despatch boxes held in their custody, and in each case forward to the Civil authority of the place in which the name of accused was situated, within the territories of the East India Company, or, in Oudh, to the President of Lucknow, a full statement showing every particular tending to lead to a clear knowledge of accused and his family, and on that account inquiries may likewise be made, the results to be collected with the assistance of the Committee and transmitted through the same channel.

234. Given and Rules regarding the classes whose heirs are entitled to limited pension, the circumstances under which they are entitled, the rates of pension, &c., are contained in Section XXI. of the Pay and Audit Code of 1845.

NOTIFICATION.—The Most Noble the Governor-General of India in Council and the same, laying before the Officers of the Bengal and Military Services of the Honorable East India Company, and before the community in the Province of Bengal, the following copy of a letter which has been addressed to him by the Earl of Derby, the Majesty's Prime Minister:

Downing Street, 8th December, 1852.

MR. LORD.—The universal tribute set by all classes to do honor to the Memory of the Duke of Wellington will probably lead to the erection of Statues and other monuments in many of the principal towns in the Empire, some of which have indeed already taken steps in this direction. But projects of this description, however laudable they may contribute to the ornament of the respective localities, and however gratifying they may be to the feelings of their inhabitants, can possess little more than local interest, can be joined in no competitive list of the population, and are not calculated to confer any substantial benefit upon the community. With a view to pay a Memorial to the Memory of the Great Duke, as which of may contribute, which shall be worthy of its object and of the Nation, and which shall be of permanent and important advantage to that Service of which he was ever the head and the ornament, it is proposed to erect and endow by Public Subscription a School or College, to bear the name of the Duke of Wellington, for the gratuitous and nearly gratuitous Education of Orphan Children of Distressed and Meritorious Officers of the Army, Institutions more or less national, already exist, in which the advantages of such an education can be obtained by the children of Sergeants of Seamen, of Naval Officers and of the Clergy, but no such provision has been made in favour of Officers of the Army, a class of men peculiarly liable to calamity, whose sufferings are often left in a condition of great and imminent pecuniary embarrassment, and under circumstances in which the necessary stringent Regulations of the Service preclude the possibility of any relief from Public Funds.

The execution of the proposed plan, and the sum upon which it can be undertaken, must depend on the degree of support given by the country to the object contemplated. It may be estimated that such a sum, composed of £10,000, remunerating a permanent Agent of about £100, will provide for all time to come, enough for the expenses of building, for the education of held; and a confidential sum will be required for the erection of a building which shall be worthy of the proposed object. No payment will be required until the total sum tendered shall amount to £10,000, when application is proposed to be made for vesting the Capital in Trusts, to be nominated in the first instance by Her Majesty from among the subscribers, and to be incorporated, as in the case of Harrow, Rugby, the Charter House, and others.

Donations may be made payable by instalments spread over two, three, or four years.

Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, have been pleased to signify their approbation of the project, and to place their names at the head of the Subscription List for the respective sums of £1,000 and £500.

I have the honor to be,

My Lord,

Very obedient Servant,

(Signed) DERBY.

The Governor General in Council feels assured, that for such an object all special solicitation would be superfluous.

He feels assured that every man among us will give with liberality such aid, as he can afford, towards preserving in grateful memory, through future ages, the name of the greatest Soldier that England ever saw, by associating with it an institution which, through years to come, will provide for thousands of Soldiers' orphans the rich advantages of a sound education.

All who are so disposed are invited to transmit their subscriptions to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, the Secretary to the Government North-Western Provinces, or the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, as may be most convenient to them.

Lists will be published from time to time, and the subscriptions when closed, will be transmitted to England.

J. P. GRANT,

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

THE COMMITTEE of the WELLINGTON ENDOWMENT, beg to acknowledge the receipt of the following subscriptions for the endowment of a College in honor of the greatest soldier East England ever saw."

SEENATH BANOOBJEE,
Clerk, P. M. General's Office.

NOTICE.—Instances very frequently occurring of Refund of Duty being claimed on the plea that the Goods upon which duty has been paid, though landed from sailing Ships, are the personal Baggage of parties travelling by the Overland route. Agents and Consignees are hereby warned, that exemption from duty must be pleaded at the time of passing the Goods; and that after they have once been removed from the Ship or the Wharf, unless passed on Deposit, no claim to Refund or Re-adjustment of Duty will be admitted.

The only Goods shipped as Cargo, which will be admitted to Free Entry, as belonging to Overland Passengers, are Wearing Apparel, and articles which have been previously in use in India.

By order of the Board of Revenue, I. P.

ALTERATION OF RANK.

Captain John Eliot and 1st Lieutenant Thomas Present to rank from the 3rd of March, 1853, for the Augmentation.

No. 276 of 1853.—To prevent misconception, it is hereby notified that the General Orders, Nos. 200 and 200 A, dated the 4th March, 1853, are applicable exclusively to European Soldiers who become entitled to their discharge, either upon the expiration of any period for which they may have enlisted, or otherwise, and to the families of such soldiers.

In the cases of soldiers who obtain their discharge by purchase, no H. M. Regulations, p. 195, Clause 18, charge is allowed by the public for their passage from abroad. Soldiers, who obtain permission to purchase their discharges in India, are required, in addition to the regulated compensation, to lodge with the Regimental Agent a sum sufficient to defray the expense of their passage Home. Soldiers

G. G. O. No. 3, dated 2nd January 1853, of the East India Company's service permitted to purchase their discharge, have no claim on the State for a passage on quitting India.

To be Captain from the 3rd of March, 1853, for the Augmentation.

To be 1st Lieuts. vice 1st Lieuts. and R. S. Gilmore promoted.

To be 1st Lieuts. from the 3rd of March, 1853, for the Augmentation.

No. 277 of 1853.—In continuation of Government General Order, No. 111, of the 4th February, 1853, it is notified that family pensioner, Shaick Jowhair, No. 1287, of the Dinafore Circle, who, in conformity with General Order Commander-in-Chief, dated 4th December, 1844, obtained admission to the Native Family Pension Establishment as son of the late Shaick Madar Bux, trooper, 5th Regiment Light Cavalry, whereas it is proved that he is in reality the nephew of the deceased, and therefore not entitled to family pension, has been ordered to be struck off the family pension rolls from the date of last payment made to him.

2. Pensioned trooper Shaick Rehat Allie, late of the 5th Regiment Light Cavalry, No. 2070, Dinafore Circle, and pensioned Havildar Shaik Mandurbuccus, late of the 40th Regiment Native Infantry, No. 3088, Dinafore Circle, as sureties for the abovenamed Shaick Jowhair, enabled him to continue in the receipt of the pension to which they knew that he was not entitled.

The Most Noble the Governor General in Council directs that they also may be struck off the Pension Establishment from the dates of last payments made to them respectively.

No. 278 of 1853.—The furlough to Europe, on medical certificate, granted by the Government of Bombay, on the 15th March, 1853, to Lieutenant J. McCarty, of the 53rd Regiment N. The 15th February, 1853.

NOTIFICATION.—The Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council has the honor of laying before the Officers of the Civil and Military Services of the Hon'ble East India Company, and before the community in the Presidency of Bengal, the following copy of a letter which has been addressed to him by the Earl of Derby, Her Majesty's Prime Minister:

Downing Street, 8th December, 1852.

MY LORD.—The universal desire felt by all classes to do honor to the Memory of the Duke of Wellington will probably lead to the erection of Statues and other Monuments in many of the principal towns in the Kingdom, some of which have indeed already taken steps in this direction. But projects of this description, however much they may contribute to the ornament of the respective localities, and however gratifying they may be to the feelings of their inhabitants, can possess little more than local interest, can be joined in by comparatively few of the population, and are not calculated to confer any substantial benefit upon the community. With a view to erect a Monument to the Memory of the Great Duke, to which all may contribute, which shall be worthy of its object and the Nation, and which shall be of permanent and important advantage to that Serv' which he was for head and the orn' proposed to erect and by Public Subscr' .ool or College, to be in name of the Duke Wellington, for the gratuitous or nearly gratuitous Education of Orphan Children of Indigenous and Meritorious Officers of the Army. Institutions, more or less national, already exist, in which the advantages of such an education can be obtained by the chil' of Seamen, of Naval Officers and of the C' if no such provision has been made in favour of Officers of the Army, a class of men peculiarly liable to casualties, by which their families are often left in a condition of the most painful pecuniary embarrassment, and under circumstances in which the necessarily stringent Regulations of the War Office, preclude the possibility of any relief from Public Funds.

The execution of the proposed plan, and the scale upon which it can be undertaken, must depend on the degree of support given by the country to the object contemplated. It may be assumed that each capital sum subscribed of £1,000, representing a permanent Annuity of about £30, will provide for all time to come, exclusive of the expense of building, for the education of one child; and a considerable sum will be required for the erection of a building which shall be worthy of the proposed object. No payment will be required until the total sum subscribed shall amount to £1,00,000, when application is proposed to be made for vesting the Capital in Trustees, to be nominated in the first instance by Her Majesty from among the subscribers, and to be incorporated, as in the case of Harrow, Rugby, the Charter House, and others.

Donations may be made payable by instalments spread over two, three, or four years.

Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, have been pleased to signify their approval of the project, and to place their names at the head of the Subscription List for the respective sums of £1,000 and £500.

I have the honor to be,

My Lord,

Your obedient Servant,

(Signed) DERBY.

The Governor General in Council feels assured, that for such an object all special solicitation would be superfluous.

He feels assured that every man among us will give with alacrity such aid, as he can afford, towards preserving in grateful memory, through future ages, the name of the greatest Soldier that England ever saw, by associating with it an Institution which, through years to come, will provide for thousands of Soldiers' orphans the rich advantages of a sound education.

All who are so disposed are invited to transmit their subscriptions to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal; the Secretary to the Government North-Western Provinces, or the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, as may be most convenient to them.

Lists will be published from time to time, and the subscriptions when closed, will be transmitted to England.

J. P. GRANT,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

THE COMMITTEE of the WELLINGTON ENDOWMENT, beg to acknowledge the receipt of the following subscriptions for the endowment of a College in honor of the greatest soldier that England ever saw."

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6, 1853.

*Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
the 1st April, 1853.*

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 1st of April, 1853.

ACT NO. —— OF 1853.

An Act to amend the practice and course of proceeding on the Equity side of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the practice and course of proceeding on the Equity side of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay. It is enacted as follows:

I. Every bill of complaint to be filed in any of the said Courts after the time hereinafter appointed for the commencement of this Act, shall contain, as concisely as may be, a narrative of the material facts, matters and circumstances on which the plaintiff relies, such narrative being divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively, and each paragraph containing, as nearly as may be, a separate and distinct statement or allegation, and shall pray specifically for the relief which the plaintiff may conceive himself entitled to, and also for general relief, but such bill of complaint shall not contain any interrogatories for the examination of the defendant.

II. Within a time, to be limited by the rules or orders to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf, the plaintiff in any suit in any of the said Courts commenced by bill may, if he requires an answer from any defendant thereto, file in the sworn clerk's or other proper office of the said Court, interrogatories for the examination of the defendant or defendants, or such of them from whom he shall require an answer, and deliver to the defendant or defendants so required to answer, or to his or their solicitor a copy of such interrogatories, or of such of them as shall be applicable to the particular defendant or defendants, and no defendant shall be called upon or required to put in any answer to a bill unless interrogatories shall have been so filed, and a copy thereof delivered to him or his solicitor, within the time so to be limited, or within such further time as the Court shall think fit to direct.

III. Whether the plaintiff in any suit in any of the said Courts shall or shall not require any answer from the defendant, or any one or more of the defendants to the bill, such defendant or defendants may, without leave of the Court, put in a plea, answer, or demurrer to the plaintiff's bill within the time now allowed to the defendant for demurring alone to a bill, or within such other time as shall be fixed by any rules or orders to be framed by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf; but after that time a defendant or defendants not required to answer the plaintiff's bill shall not be at liberty to put in a plea, answer, or demurrer to the bill, without leave of the Court; provided that the power of the Court to grant further time for pleading, answering, or demurring to any bill, upon the application of any defendant or defendants thereto, whether required to answer the bill or not, shall remain in full force, and shall not be in any wise prejudiced or affected; provided also that if the Court shall grant any further time to any defendant for pleading, answering or demurring to the bill, the plaintiff's right to move for a decree under the provisions hereinafter contained shall in the mean time be suspended.

IV. The answer of the defendant to any bill of complaint in any of the said Courts may contain not only the answer of the defendant to the interrogatories so filed as aforesaid, but such statements material to the case as the defendant may think it necessary or advisable to set forth therein, and such answer shall also be divided into paragraphs, numbered consecutively, each paragraph containing, as nearly as may be, a separate and distinct statement or allegation.

V. The plaintiff in any suit commenced by bill shall be at liberty, at any time after the time allowed to the defendant for answering the same shall have expired (but before replication), to move the Court, upon such notice as shall in that behalf be prescribed by any rule or order to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively, for such decree or decretal order as he may think himself entitled to, and the plaintiff and defendant respectively shall be at liberty to file affidavits in support of and in opposition to the motion so to be made, and to use the same on the hearing of such motion; and if such motion shall be made after an answer filed in the cause the answer shall, for the purposes of the motion, be treated as an affidavit.

VI. Upon any such motion for a decree or decretal order, it shall be discretionary with the Court to grant or refuse the motion, or to make an order giving such directions for or with respect to the further prosecution of the suit as the circumstances of the case may require, and to make such order as to costs as it may think right.

VII. The practice of excepting to bills, answers and other proceedings in the said Courts for impertinence, shall be, and the same is hereby abolished; provided that it shall be lawful for any of the said Courts to direct the costs occasioned by any impertinent matter introduced into any proceeding in the said Court to be paid by the party introducing the same, upon application being made to the Court for that purpose.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Court, upon the application of the plaintiff in any suit in any of the said Courts, whether commenced by bill or by claim, and as to a suit commenced by bill, whether the defendant may or may not have been required to answer the bill, or may or may not have been interrogated as to the possession of documents, to make an order for the production by any defendant, upon oath, of such of the documents in his possession or power relating to matters in question in the suit as the Court shall think right, and the Court may deal with such documents when produced in such manner as shall appear just.

IX. It shall be lawful for any defendant in any suit, whether commenced by bill or by claim, but in suits commenced by bill which the defendant is required to answer, not until after he shall have put in a sufficient answer to the bill, and without filing any cross bill of discovery, to file, in the sworn clerk's or other proper office of the Court wherein such suit is pending, interrogatories for the examination of the plaintiff, to which shall be prefixed a concise statement of the subjects on which a discovery is sought, and to deliver a copy of such interrogatories to the plaintiff or his solicitor, and such plaintiff shall be bound to answer such interrogatories, in like manner as if the same had been contained in a bill of discovery filed by the defendant against him on the day when such interrogatories shall have been filed, and as if the defendant to such bill of discovery had on the same day duly appeared; and the practice of the Court with reference to excepting to answers for insufficiency, or for scandal, shall extend and be applicable to answers put in to such interrogatories; provided that in determining the materiality or relevancy of any such answer, or of any exception thereto, the Court is to have regard, in suits commenced by bill, to the statement contained in the original bill, and in the answer which may have been put in thereto by the defendant exhibiting such interrogatories for the examination of the plaintiff, and in suits commenced by claim, to the statements therein, and in any affidavits which may have been filed either in support thereof or in opposition thereto; provided also that a defendant, if he shall think fit so to do, may exhibit a cross bill of discovery against the plaintiff, instead of filing interrogatories for his examination.

X. It shall be lawful for the Court, upon the application of any defendant in any suit, whether commenced by bill or by claim, but as to suits commenced by bill where the defendant is required to answer the plaintiff's bill, not until after he has put in a full and sufficient answer to the bill, unless the Court shall make any order to the contrary, to make an order for the production by the plaintiff in such suit, on oath, of such of the documents in his possession or power relating to the matter in question in the suit as the Court shall think right, and the Court may deal with such documents when produced in such manner as shall appear just.

XI. Every plea, answer, disclaimer, or examination may be filed without any further or other formality than is required in the swearing and filing of an affidavit.

XII. In suits commenced in any of the said Courts by bill, where notice of motion for a decree or decretal order shall not have been given, or, having been given, where a decree or decretal order shall not have been made thereon, issue shall be joined by filing a replication, in the form or to the effect of the replication now in use in the said Courts respectively, and where a defendant shall not have been required to answer and shall not have answered the plaintiff's bill, he shall be considered to have traversed the case made by the bill.

XIII. Where a defendant to a suit in any of the said Courts commenced by bill shall not have been required to answer the bill, and shall not have answered the same, such defendant shall be at liberty to move to dismiss the bill for want of prosecution, at such times and under such circumstances, and subject to such restrictions, as shall be in that behalf prescribed by any rules or orders to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf.

XIV. Every affidavit to be used in the said Courts shall be divided into paragraphs, and every paragraph shall be numbered consecutively, and, as nearly as may be, shall be confined to a distinct portion of the subject.

XV. When any suit commenced in any of the said Courts by bill shall be at issue, the Court or a Judge thereof may, upon the application of any of the parties to the suit, and by consent of all the other parties thereto, make an order that the parties shall be at liberty to verify their respective cases by affidavit, and such cases may thereupon be verified accordingly. If any one or more of the parties, who shall not have a sufficient interest in the matters in question to require the evidence to be oral, shall not consent to the making of such order, the Court, or a judge thereof, may make the same without the consent of such party or parties.

XVI. If no such order shall be made, the evidence to be adduced in the cause after issue joined therein shall be taken orally before the Court, and the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents may be enforced in the manner for the time being in use on the Common Law side of the said Courts respectively; provided that the Court may order any particular witness or witnesses within the jurisdiction of the Court, or any witness or witnesses out of the jurisdiction of the Court, to be examined, upon interrogatories or otherwise, under a commission, and to make such order relating to such examination as the Court may think fit; and provided also, that affidavits of particular witnesses, or affidavits as to particular facts or circumstances, may by consent of the parties, or by leave of the Court obtained upon notice, be used on the hearing of any cause; such consent, and also the consent required by the XV. Section of this Act, may, with the approbation of the Court, be given by or on the part of married women or infants, or other persons under disability, being parties to any such suit.

XVII. Upon the hearing of any suit depending in any of the said Courts, whether commenced by bill or claim, and also upon the hearing of any motion, petition or other proceeding in any of the said Courts, the Court, if it shall see fit so to do, may, upon the application of any of the parties thereto, or of its own accord, require and enforce the attendance and oral examination before itself of any witness, or of any party to the suit, and may also require and enforce the production of any document or documents, and may direct the costs of the attendance and examination of such witness or party and of the production of such document or documents to be paid by such of the parties to the suit, or in such manner as it may think fit.

XVIII. Any party in any suit or matter depending on the Equity side of any of the said Courts may, by order of the Court or of a Judge thereof, issue a writ of subpœna ad testificandum or duces tecum, for the purpose of compelling the attendance of any person before the said Courts, or before the Commissioner or Commissioners specially appointed for the purpose, at a time and place to be specified in such subpœna, to give evidence and produce documents in support of or in opposition to any claim, motion, petition, or other proceeding before the Court; and every person served with such subpœna shall be bound to attend in pursuance thereof, and to produce documents, and to give evidence, in like manner and subject to the same rules as a witness subpoenaed to attend or produce documents upon the trial of any cause in the said Court.

XIX. Any person who shall make an affidavit which shall be used or filed by any party to a suit in any of the said Courts, may, by the order of the Court or of a Judge thereof, be subjected to oral cross-examination by or before the Court, or a Commissioner or Commissioners to be appointed for that purpose, and may be subpoenaed to attend for that purpose, and to produce any document or documents, at a time and place to be specified in the subpœna; and any person so subpoenaed shall be bound to attend and produce such document or documents in pursuance of such subpœna, in the same manner, and subject to the same rules, as a witness subpoenaed to attend and give evidence or produce documents on the trial of a cause, and such person may be cross-examined and re-examined orally; provided that the Court shall always have a discretionary power of acting upon such evidence as may be before it at the time, and of making such interim orders as may appear necessary to meet the justice of the case.

XX. The costs of the attendance of any person, for the purpose of cross-examination as aforesaid, and of the said cross-examination and re-examination, shall be paid by the parties respectively, in like manner as if the person so attending to be cross-examined were the witness of the party cross-examining, and shall be deemed costs in the cause of such parties respectively, unless the Court shall think fit otherwise to direct.

XXI. It shall not be competent to any defendant in any suit in any of the said Courts to take any objection for want of parties to such suit, in any case to which the rules hereinafter set forth extend, and such rules shall be deemed and taken as part of the law and practice of the said Courts respectively, and any law or practice of any of the said Courts inconsistent therewith shall be and is hereby abrogated and annulled.

Rule 1st.—Any residuary legatee or next of kin may, without serving the remaining residuary legatees or next of kin, have a decree for the administration of the personal estate of a deceased person.

Rule 2nd.—Any legatee interested in a legacy charged upon real estate, and any person interested in the proceeds of real estate directed to be sold, may, without serving any other legatee or person interested in the proceeds of the estate, have a decree for the administration of the estate of a deceased person.

Rule 3rd.—Any residuary devisee or heir may, without serving any co-residuary devisee or co-heir, have the like decree.

Rule 4th.—Any one of several cestuis que trust under any deed or instrument may, without serving any other of such cestuis que trust, have a decree for the execution of the trusts of the deed or instrument.

Rule 5th.—In all cases of suits for the protection of property pending litigation, and in all cases in the nature of waste, one person may sue on behalf of himself and of all persons having the same interest.

Rule 6th.—Any executor, administrator or trustee may obtain a decree against any one legatee, next of kin, or cestuis que trust, for the administration of the estate or the execution of the trusts.

Rule 7th.—In all the above cases the Court, if it shall see fit, may require any other person or persons to be made a party or parties to the suit, and may, if it shall see fit, give the conduct of the suit to such person as it may deem proper, and may make such order in any particular case as it may deem just for placing the defendant on the record on the same footing in regard to costs as other parties having a common interest with him in the matters in question.

Rule 8th.—In all the above cases the persons who, according to the present practice of the Court, would be necessary parties to the suit, shall be served with notice of the decree, and after such notice they shall be bound by the proceedings in the same manner as if they had been originally made parties to the suit, and they may, by an order of Court, have liberty to attend the proceedings under the decree; and any party so served may, within such time as shall in that behalf be prescribed by the rule or order to be made by the said Courts respectively in that behalf, apply to the Court to add to the decree.

Rule 9th.—In all suits concerning real or personal estate which is vested in trustees under a will, settlement, or otherwise, such trustees shall represent the persons beneficially interested under the trust, in the same manner and to the same extent as the executors or administrators in suits concerning personal estate represent the persons beneficially interested in such personal estate, and in such cases it shall not be necessary to make the persons beneficially interested under the trusts parties to the suit, but the Court may upon consideration of the matter on the hearing, if it shall so think fit, order such persons or any of them to be made parties.

XXII. The practice of setting down a cause merely on an objection for want of parties to the suit shall be abolished.

XXIII. If in any suit or other proceeding before any of the said Courts, it shall appear to the Court that any deceased person who was interested in the matters in question has no legal personal representative, it shall be lawful for the Court either to proceed in the absence of any person representing the estate of such deceased person, or to appoint some person to represent such estate for all the purposes of the suit or other proceeding, on such notice to such person or persons, if any, as the Court shall think fit, either especially or generally by public advertisements; and the order so made by the said Court, and any orders consequent thereon, shall bind the estate of such deceased person, in the same manner in every respect as if there had been a duly constituted legal personal representative of such deceased person and such legal personal representative had been a party to the suit or proceeding, and had duly appeared and submitted his rights and interests to the protection of the Court.

XXIV. It shall be lawful for any person claiming to be a creditor, or a specific pecuniary or residuary legatee, or the next of kin, or some or one of the next of kin of a deceased person, to apply for and obtain as of course, without bill or claim filed, or any other preliminary proceedings, a summons from a Judge of any of the said Courts, requiring the executor or administrator, as the case may be, of such deceased person, to attend before him at chambers for the purpose of showing cause why an order for the administration of the personal estate of the deceased should not be granted, and upon proof by affidavit of the due service of such summons, or on the appearance in person, or by his solicitor or counsel, of such executor or administrator, and upon proof by affidavit of such other matters, if any, as such Judge shall require, it shall be lawful for such Judge, if in his discretion he shall think fit so to do, to make the usual order for the administration of the estate of the deceased, with such variations, if any, as the circumstances of the case may require, and the order so made shall have the force and effect of a decree to the like effect made on the hearing of a cause or claim between the same parties; provided that such Judge shall have full discretionary power to grant or refuse such order, or to give any special directions touching the carriage or execution of such order, and in the case of applications for any such order by two or more different persons or classes of persons, to grant the same to such one or more of the claimants, or of the classes of claimants, as he may think fit; and if the Judge shall think proper, the carriage of the order may subsequently be given to such party interested, and upon such terms as the Judge may direct.

XXV. A duplicate or copy of such summons shall, previously to the service thereof, be filed in the office of the registrar or other proper officer of the Court to a Judge whereof such application for a summons shall be made, and no service thereof upon any executor or administrator shall be of any validity unless the copy so served shall be countersigned by such registrar as an indication of the filing thereof, and the filing of such summons shall have the same effect with respect to lis pendens as the filing of a bill or claim.

XXVI. It shall be lawful for any person claiming to be a creditor of any deceased person, or interested under his will, to apply for and obtain in a summary way, in the manner hereinbefore provided with respect to the personal estate of a deceased person, an order for the administration of the immovable estate of a deceased person being a Hindoo or a Mahomedan, or for the administration of the real estate of a deceased person, not being a Hindoo or a Mahomedan, where the whole of such real estate is by devise vested in trustees who are by the will empowered to sell such real estate, and authorized to give receipts for the rents and profits thereof, and for the produce of the sale of such real estate; and all the provisions hereinbefore contained with respect to the application for such order in relation to the personal estate of a deceased person and consequent thereon, shall extend and be applicable to applications for such orders as hereinbefore mentioned with respect to immovable or real estate.

XXVII. It shall be lawful for the Court, in any suit for the foreclosure of the equity of redemption in any mortgaged property, upon the request of the mortgagee or of any subsequent incumbrancer, or of the mortgagor, or any person claiming under them respectively, to direct a sale of such property instead of a foreclosure of such equity of redemption on such terms as the Court may think fit to direct, and if the Court shall so think fit without previously determining the priorities of incumbrances or giving the usual or any time to redeem; provided that if such request shall be made by any subsequent incumbrancer, or by the mortgagor, or by any person claiming under them respectively, the Court shall not direct any such sale without the consent of the mortgagee, or the persons claiming under him, unless the party making such request shall deposit in Court a reasonable sum of money, to be fixed by the Court, for the purpose of securing the performance of such terms as the Court may think fit to impose on the party making such request.

XXVIII. No suit in any of the said Courts shall be dismissed by reason only of the misjoinder of persons as plaintiffs therein, but wherever it shall appear to the Court that notwithstanding the conflict of interest in the co-plaintiffs, or the want of interest in some of the plaintiffs, or the existence of some ground of defence affecting some or one of the plaintiffs, the plaintiffs, or some or one of them, are or is entitled to relief, the Court shall have power to grant such relief and to modify the decree according to the special circumstances of the case, and for that purpose to direct such amendment, if any, as may be necessary, and at the hearing, before such amendments are made, to treat any one or more of the plaintiffs as if he or they was or were a defendant or defendants in the suit, and the remaining or other plaintiff or plaintiffs was or were the only plaintiff or plaintiffs on the record; and where there is a misjoinder of plaintiffs and the plaintiff having an interest shall have died leaving a plaintiff on the record without an interest, the Court may, at the hearing of the cause, order the cause to stand revived as may appear just, and proceed to a decision of the cause if it shall see fit, and to give such directions as to costs or otherwise as may appear just and expedient.

XXIX. No suit in any of the said Courts shall be open to objection on the ground that a merely declaratory decree or order is sought thereby, and it shall be lawful for the Court to make binding declarations of right without granting consequential relief.

XXX. It shall be lawful for the Court to adjudicate on questions arising between parties notwithstanding that they may be some only of the parties interested in the property respecting which the question may have arisen, or that the property in question is comprised with other property in the same settlement, will, or other instrument, without making the other parties interested in the property respecting which the question may have arisen, or interested under the same settlement, will, or other instrument, parties to the suit, and without requiring the whole trusts and proposes of the settlement, will, or other instrument to be executed under the direction of the Court, and without taking the accounts of the trustees or other accounting parties, or ascertaining the particulars or amount of the property touching which the question or questions may have arisen. Provided always, that if the Court shall be of opinion that the application is fraudulent or collusive, or for some other reason ought not to be entertained, it shall have power to refuse to make the order prayed.

XXXI. Upon any suit in any of the said Courts becoming abated by death, marriage or otherwise, or defective by reason of some change or transmission of interest or liability, it shall not be necessary to exhibit any bill of revivor or supplemental bill in order to obtain the usual order to revive such suit, or the usual or necessary decree or order to carry on the proceedings; but an order to the effect of the usual order to revive, or of the usual supplemental decree, may be obtained as of course, upon an allegation of the abatement of such suit or of the same having become defective, and of the change or transmission of interest or liability; and an order so obtained, when served upon the party or parties who, according to the present practice of the said Court, would be defendant or defendants to the bill of revivor or supplemental bill, shall, from the time of such service, be binding on such party or parties, in the same manner in every respect as if such order had been regularly obtained according to the existing practice of the said Courts, and such party or parties shall thenceforth become a party or parties to the suit, and shall be bound to enter an appearance thereto in the office of the registrar or other officer of the Court within such time and in like manner as if he or they had been duly served with process to appear to a bill of revivor or supplemental bill filed against him; provided that it shall be open to the party or parties so served, within such time after service as shall be in that behalf prescribed by any rule or order to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf, to apply to the Court by motion or petition to discharge such order on any ground which would have been open to him on a bill of revivor or supplemental bill, stating the previous proceedings in the suit and the alleged change or transmission of interest or liability, and praying the usual relief consequent thereon; provided also, that if any party so served shall be under any disability, other than coverture, such order shall be of no force or effect as against such party until a guardian or guardians ad litem shall have been duly appointed for such party, and such time shall have elapsed thereafter as shall be prescribed by any rule or order to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf.

XXXII. It shall not be necessary to exhibit any supplemental bill in any of the said Courts for the purpose only of stating or putting in issue facts or circumstances which may have occurred after the institution of any suit; but such facts or circumstances may be introduced by way of amendment into the original bill of complaint in the suit, if the cause is otherwise in such a state as to allow of an amendment being made in the bill, and if not, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to state such facts or circumstances on the record, in such manner, and subject to such rules and regulations, with respect to the proof thereof, and the affording the defendant leave and opportunity of answering and meeting the same, as shall in that behalf be prescribed, by any rule or order to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively.

XXXIII. It shall be lawful for the Court in any case where any account is required to be taken, to give such special directions, if any, as it may think fit with respect to the mode in which the account should be taken or vouched, and such special directions may be given either by the decree or order directing such account, or by any subsequent order or orders, upon its appearing to the Court that the circumstances of the case are such as to require such special directions, and particularly it shall be lawful for the Court, in cases where it shall think fit so to do, to direct that in taking the account, the books of account in which the accounts required to be taken have been kept, or any of them, shall be taken as prima facie evidence of the truth of the matters therein contained, with liberty to the parties interested to take such objections thereto as they may be advised.

XXXIV. If after a suit shall have been instituted in any of the said Courts in relation to any real estate, it shall appear to the Court that it will be necessary or expedient that the said real estate, or any part thereof, should be sold for the purposes of such suit, it shall be lawful for the said Court to direct the same to be sold at any time after the institution thereof, and such sale shall be as valid to all intents and purposes as if directed to be made by a decree or decretal order on the hearing of such cause; and any party to the suit in possession of such estate, or in receipt of the rents and profits thereof, shall be compelled to deliver up such possession or receipt to the purchaser or such other person as the Court shall direct.

XXXV. Where any real or immoveable or any personal property shall form the subject of any proceedings in any of the said Courts, and the Court shall be satisfied that the same will be more than sufficient to answer all the claims thereon, which ought to be provided for in such suit, it shall be lawful for the said Court, at any time after the commencement of such proceedings, to allow to the parties interested therein, or any one or more of them, the whole or part of the annual incomes of such real or immoveable property, or a part of such personal property, or a part or the whole of the income thereof, up to such time as the said Court shall direct, and for that purpose to make such orders as may appear to the said Court necessary or expedient.

XXXVI. Upon application, by motion or petition, to any of the said Courts in any suit depending therein for an injunction, or a receiver, or to dissolve an injunction or discharge an order appointing a receiver, the answer of the defendant shall, for the purpose of evidence on such motion or petition, be regarded merely as an affidavit of the defendant, and affidavits may be received and read in opposition thereto.

XXXVII. In case any of the directions herein contained with respect to the practice and course of proceedings in any of the said Courts shall, by mistake of parties, fail to be followed in any suit or proceeding in any of the said Courts, it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall think fit, upon payment of such costs as such Court shall direct, to make such order giving effect to and rectifying such proceedings as may be justified by the merits of the case.

XXXVIII. In cases where, according to the present practice of the said Courts, they decline to grant equitable relief until the legal title or right of the party or parties seeking such relief shall have been established in a proceeding at law, the said Comt, sitting as a Court of Equity, may itself determine such title or right, without requiring the parties to proceed at law to establish the same.

XXXIX. The Judges of the said Courts respectively may, from time to time, make General Rules and Orders for carrying the purposes of this Act into effect, and for regulating the times and form and mode of proceeding, and generally the practice of the said Court, in respect of the matters to which this Act relates, and for regulating the fees and allowances to all officers of the said Court and solicitors thereof, in respect to such matters, and, so far as may be found expedient, for altering the course of proceeding hereinbefore prescribed in respect to the matters to which this Act relates or any of them, and such Rules and Orders may, from time to time, be rescinded or altered by the like authority, and all such Rules and Orders shall be subject to be confirmed or disallowed by the Governor General of India in Council, and to be altered or rescinded by Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, in Council, in the same manner as the like Rules and Orders would have been, if made by the said Courts respectively under their general or statutory power of making Rules.

XL. This Act shall extend to suits and proceedings on the Equity side only of the said Supreme Courts, and in the construction of this Act the words "Bill of Complaint" shall mean and include "Information," the word "Affidavit" shall mean and include "Affirmation" in cases where affirmation is allowed.

XLI. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the day of provided that it shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts respectively to make and issue any such Rules or Orders as aforesaid at any time after the passing of this Act, so as the same be not made to take effect before the time appointed for the commencement of this Act.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be reconsidered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 1st day of July next.

The Mails on these lines are conveyed by foot-runners. The road being cutch, the slightest shower of rain renders it muddy and impracticable for speedy transit.

The Mails are conveyed by Eekha carts up to Khamra. The road being cutch, no great improvement in the progress of the Mail can be effected.

In these lines the Mails are conveyed by foot-runners. The road is in so bad a state, and so much intersected by rivers and nullahs, that no great improvement in the speed of the Mails can be effected.

NOTIFICATION.—The Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council has the honor of laying before the Officers of the Civil and Military Services of the Hon'ble East India Company, and before the community in the Presidency of Bengal, the following copy of a letter which has been addressed to him by the Earl of Derby, Her Majesty's Prime Minister:

Downing Street, 8th December, 1852.

MY LORD.—The universal desire felt by all classes to do honor to the Memory of the Duke of Wellington will probably lead to the erection of Statues and other Monuments in many of the principal towns in the Kingdom, some of which have indeed already taken steps in this direction. But projects of this description, however much they may contribute to the ornament of the respective localities, and however gratifying they are to the feelings of their inhabitants, can possess more than local interest, can be joined in by only a few of the population, and are not calculated to confer any substantial benefit upon the community. With a view to erect a Monument to the Memory of the Great General, to which all may contribute, which shall be worthy of the respect and of the Nation, and which shall be of permanent and important advantage to that Service of which he was long the head and the ornament, it is proposed to erect and endow by Public Subscription, a School or College, to bear the name of the Duke of Wellington, for the gratuitous or nearly gratuitous Education of Orphan Children of Indigent and Meritorious Officers of the Army. Institutions, more or less national, already exist, in which the advantages of such an education can be obtained by the children of Soldiers, of Seamen, of Naval Officers and of the Clergy; but no such provision has been made in favour of Officers of the Army, a class of men peculiarly liable to casualties, by which their families are often left in a condition of the most painful pecuniary embarrassment, and under circumstances in which the necessarily stringent Regulations of the War Office, preclude the possibility of any relief from Public Funds.

The execution of the proposed plan, and the scale upon which it can be undertaken, must depend on the degree of support given by the country to the object contemplated. It may be assumed that each capital sum subscribed of £1,000, representing a permanent Annuity of about £30, will provide for all time to come, exclusive of the expense of building, for the education of one child; and a considerable sum will be required for the erection of a building which shall be worthy of the proposed object. No payment will be required until the total sum subscribed shall amount to £1,00,000, when application is proposed to be made for vesting the Capital in Trustees, to be nominated in the first instance by Her Majesty from among the subscribers, and to be incorporated, as in the case of Harrow, Rugby, the Charter House, and others.

Donations may be made payable by instalments spread over two, three, or four years.

Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, have been pleased to signify their approval of the project, and to place their names at the head of the Subscription List for the respective sums of £1,000 and £500.

I have the honor to be,

My LORD,

Your obedient Servant,

(Signed) Derby

The Governor General in Council feels assured, that for such an object all specific citation would be superfluous.

He feels assured that every man among us will give with alacrity such aid, as he can afford, towards preserving in grateful memory, through future ages, the name of the greatest Soldier that England ever saw, by associating with it an Institution which, through years to come, will provide for thousands of Soldiers' orphans the rich advantages of a sound education.

All who are so disposed are invited to transmit their subscriptions to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, the Secretary to the Government North-Western Provinces, or the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, as may be most convenient to them.

Lists will be published from time to time, and the subscriptions, when closed, will be transmitted to England.

J. P. GRANT,

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

THE COMMITTEE of the WELLINGTON ENDOWMENT, beg to acknowledge the receipt of the following subscriptions for the endowment of a College in honor of "the greatest soldier that England ever saw."

SATURDAY, APRIL 9, 1853.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
the 1st April, 1853.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 1st of April, 1853.

ACT NO. — OF 1853.

An Act to amend the practice and course of proceeding on the Equity side of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the practice and course of proceeding on the Equity side of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay, It is enacted as follows:

I. Every bill of complaint to be filed in any of the said Courts after the time hereinafter appointed for the commencement of this Act, shall contain, as concisely as may be, a narrative of the material facts, matters and circumstances on which the plaintiff relies, such narrative being divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively, and each paragraph containing, as nearly as may be, a separate and distinct statement or allegation, and shall pray specifically for the relief which the plaintiff may conceive himself entitled to, and also for general relief, but such bill of complaint shall not contain any interrogatories for the examination of the defendant.

II. Within a time, to be limited by the rules or orders to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf, the plaintiff in any suit in any of the said Courts commenced by bill may, if he requires an answer from any defendant thereto, file in the sworn clerk's or other proper office of the said Court, interrogatories for the examination of the defendant or defendants, or such of them from whom he shall require an answer, and deliver to the defendant or defendants so required to answer, or to his or their solicitor, a copy of such interrogatories, or of such of them as shall be applicable to the particular defendant or defendants, and no defendant shall be called upon or required to put in any answer to a bill unless interrogatories shall have been so filed, and a copy thereof delivered to him or his solicitor, within the time so to be limited, or within such further time as the Court shall think fit to direct.

III. Whether the plaintiff in any suit in any of the said Courts shall or shall not require any answer from the defendant, or any one or more of the defendants to the bill, such defendant or defendants may, without leave of the Court, put in a plea, answer, or demurrer to the plaintiff's bill within the time now allowed to the defendant for answering alone to a bill, or within such other time as shall be fixed by any rules or orders to be framed by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf; but after that time a defendant or defendants not required to answer the plaintiff's bill shall not be at liberty to put in a plea, answer, or demurrer to the bill, without leave of the Court; provided that the power of the Court to grant further time for pleading, answering, or demurring to any bill, upon the application of any defendant or defendants thereto, whether required to answer the bill or not, shall remain in full force, and shall not be in any wise prejudiced or affected; provided also that if the Court shall grant any further time to any defendant for pleading, answering or demurring to the bill, the plaintiff's right to move for a decree under the provisions hereinafter contained shall in the mean time be suspended.

IV. The answer of the defendant to any bill of complaint in any of the said Courts may contain not only the answer of the defendant to the interrogatories so filed as aforesaid, but such statements material to the case as the defendant may think it necessary or advisable to set forth therein, and such answer shall also be divided into paragraphs, numbered consecutively, each paragraph containing, as nearly as may be, a separate and distinct statement or allegation.

V. The plaintiff in any suit commenced by bill shall be at liberty, at any time after the time allowed to the defendant for answering the same shall have expired (but before replication), to move the Court, upon such notice as shall in that behalf be prescribed by any rule or order to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively, for such decree or decretal order as he may think himself entitled to, and the plaintiff and defendant respectively shall be at liberty to file affidavits in support of and in opposition to the motion so to be made, and to use the same on the hearing of such motion; and if such motion shall be made after an answer filed in the cause the answer shall, for the purposes of the motion, be treated as an affidavit.

VI. Upon any such motion for a decree or decretal order, it shall be discretionary with the Court to grant or refuse the motion, or to make an order giving such directions, for or with respect to the further prosecution of the suit as the circumstances of the case may require, and to make such order as to costs as it may think right.

VII. The practice of excepting to bills, answers and other proceedings in the said Courts for impertinence, shall be, and the same is hereby abolished; provided that it shall be lawful for any of the said Courts to direct the costs occasioned by any impertinent matter introduced into any proceeding in the said Court to be paid by the party introducing the same, upon application being made to the Court for that purpose.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Court, upon the application of the plaintiff in any suit in any of the said Courts, whether commenced by bill or by claim, and as to a suit commenced by bill, whether the defendant may or may not have been required to answer the bill, or may or may not have been interrogated as to the possession of documents, to make an order for the production by any defendant, upon oath, of such of the documents in his possession or power relating to matters in question in the suit as the Court shall think right, and the Court may deal with such documents when produced in such manner as shall appear just.

IX. It shall be lawful for any defendant in any suit, whether commenced by bill or by claim, but in suits commenced by bill which the defendant is required to answer, not until after he shall have put in a sufficient answer to the bill, and without filing any cross bill of discovery, to file, in the sworn clerk's or other proper office of the Court wherein such suit is pending, interrogatories for the examination of the plaintiff, to which shall be prefixed a concise statement of the subjects on which a discovery is sought, and to deliver a copy of such interrogatories to the plaintiff or his solicitor, and such plaintiff shall be bound to answer such interrogatories, in like manner as if the same had been contained in a bill of discovery filed by the defendant against him on the day when such interrogatories shall have been filed, and as if the defendant to such bill of discovery had on the same day duly appeared; and the practice of the Court with reference to excepting to answers for insufficiency, or for scandal, shall extend and be applicable to answers put in to such interrogatories; provided that in determining the materiality or relevancy of any such answer, or of any exception thereto, the Court is to have regard, in suits commenced by bill, to the statement contained in the original bill, and in the answer which may have been put in thereto by the defendant exhibiting such interrogatories for the examination of the plaintiff, and in suits commenced by claim, to the statements therein, and in any affidavits which may have been filed either in support thereof, or in opposition thereto; provided also that a defendant, if he shall think fit so to do, may exhibit a cross bill of discovery against the plaintiff, instead of filing interrogatories for his examination.

X. It shall be lawful for the Court, upon the application of any defendant in any suit, whether commenced by bill or by claim, but as to suits commenced by bill where the defendant is required to answer the plaintiff's bill, not until after he has put in a full and sufficient answer to the bill, unless the Court shall make any order to the contrary, to make an order for the production by the plaintiff in such suit, on oath, of such of the documents in his possession or power relating to the matter in question in the suit as the Court shall think right, and the Court may deal with such documents when produced in such manner as shall appear just.

XI. Every plea, answer, disclaimer, or examination may be filed without any further or other formality than is required in the swearing and filing of an affidavit.

XII. In suits commenced in any of the said Courts by bill, where notice of motion for a decree or decretal order shall not have been given, or, having been given, where a decree or decretal order shall not have been made thereon, issue shall be joined by filing a replication, in the form or to the effect of the replication now in use in the said Courts respectively, and where a defendant shall not have been required to answer and shall not have answered the plaintiff's bill, he shall be considered to have traversed the case made by the bill.

XIII. Where a defendant to a suit in any of the said Courts commenced by bill shall not have been required to answer the bill, and shall not have answered the same, such defendant shall be at liberty to move to dismiss the bill for want of prosecution, at such times and under such circumstances, and subject to such restrictions, as shall be in that behalf prescribed by any rules or orders to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf.

XIV. Every affidavit to be used in the said Courts shall be divided into paragraphs, and every paragraph shall be numbered consecutively, and, as nearly as may be, shall be confined to a distinct portion of the subject.

XV. When any suit commenced in any of the said Courts by bill shall be at issue, the Court or a Judge thereof may, upon the application of any of the parties to the suit, and by consent of all the other parties thereto, make an order that the parties shall be at liberty to verify their respective cases by affidavit, and such cases may thereupon be verified accordingly. If any one or more of the parties, who shall not have a sufficient interest in the matters in question to require the evidence to be oral, shall not consent to the making of such order, the Court, or a judge thereof, may make the same without the consent of such party or parties.

XVI. If no such order shall be made, the evidence to be adduced in the cause after issue joined therein shall be taken orally before the Court, and the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents may be enforced in the manner for the time being in use on the Common Law side of the said Courts respectively; provided that the Court may order any particular witness or witnesses within the jurisdiction of the Court, or any witness or witnesses out of the jurisdiction of the Court, to be examined, upon interrogatories or otherwise, under a commission, and to make such order relating to such examination as the Court may think fit; and provided also, that affidavits of particular witnesses, or affidavits as to particular facts or circumstances, may by consent of the parties, or by leave of the Court obtained upon notice, be used on the hearing of any cause; such consent, and also the consent required by the XV. Section of this Act, may, with the approbation of the Court, be given by or on the part of married women or infants, or other persons under disability, being parties to any such suit.

XVII. Upon the hearing of any suit depending in any of the said Courts, whether commenced by bill or claim, and also upon the hearing of any motion, petition or other proceeding in any of the said Courts, the Court, if it shall see fit so to do, may, upon the application of any of the parties thereto, or of its own accord, require and enforce the attendance and oral examination before itself of any witness, or of any party to the suit, and may also require and enforce the production of any document or documents, and may direct the costs of the attendance and examination of such witness or party and of the production of such document or documents to be paid by such of the parties to the suit, or in such manner as it may think fit.

XVIII. Any party in any suit or matter depending on the Equity side of any of the said Courts may, by order of the Court or of a Judge thereof, issue a writ of subpœna ad testificandum or duces tecum, for the purpose of compelling the attendance of any person before the said Courts, or before the Commissioner or Commissioners specially appointed for the purpose, at a time and place to be specified in such subpœna, to give evidence and produce documents in support of or in opposition to any claim, motion, petition, or other proceeding before the Court; and every person served with such subpœna shall be bound to attend in pursuance thereof, and to produce documents, and to give evidence, in like manner and subject to the same rules as a witness subpoenaed to attend or produce documents upon the trial of any cause in the said Court.

XIX. Any person who shall make an affidavit which shall be used or filed by any party to a suit in any of the said Courts, may, by the order of the Court or of a Judge thereof, be subjected to oral cross-examination by or before the Court, or a Commissioner or Commissioners to be appointed for that purpose, and may be subpoenaed to attend for that purpose, and to produce any document or documents, at a time and place to be specified in the subpoena; and any person so subpoenaed shall be bound to attend and produce such document or documents in pursuance of such subpoena, in the same manner, and subject to the same rules, as a witness subpoenaed to attend and give evidence or produce documents on the trial of a cause, and such person may be cross-examined and re-examined orally; provided that the Court shall always have a discretionary power of acting upon such evidence as may be before it at the time, and of making such interim orders as may appear necessary to meet the justice of the case.

XX. The costs of the attendance of any person, for the purpose of cross-examination as aforesaid, and of the said examination and re-examination, shall be paid by the parties respectively, in like manner as a witness of the party cross-examining, and shall be deemed costs in the cause of such parties respectively, unless the Court shall think fit otherwise to direct.

XXI. It shall not be competent to any defendant in any suit in any of the said Courts to take any objection for want of parties to such suit, in any case to which the rules hereinafter set forth extend, and such rules shall be deemed to be taken as part of the law and practice of the said Courts respectively, and any law or practice any of the said Courts inconsistent therewith shall be and is hereby abrogated and annulled.

Rule 1st.—Any residuary legatee or next of kin may, without serving the remaining residuary legatees or next of kin, have a decree for the administration of the personal estate of a deceased person.

Rule 2nd.—Any legatee interested in a legacy charged upon real estate, and any person interested in the proceeds of real estate directed to be sold, may, without serving any other legatee or person interested in the proceeds of the estate, have a decree for the administration of the estate of a deceased person.

Rule 3rd.—Any residuary devisee or heir may, without serving any co-residuary devisee or co-heir, have the like decree.

Rule 4th.—Any one of several cestuis que trust under my deed or instrument may, without serving any other of such cestuis que trust, have a decree for the execution of the trusts of the deed or instrument.

Rule 5th.—In all cases of suits for the protection of property pending litigation, and in all cases in the nature of waste, one person may sue on behalf of himself and of all persons having the same interest.

Rule 6th.—Any executor, administrator or trustee may obtain a decree against any one legatee, next of kin, or cestuis que trust, for the administration of the estate or the execution of the trusts.

Rule 7th.—In all the above cases the Court, if it shall see fit, may require any other person or persons to be made a party or parties to the suit, and may, if it shall see fit, give the conduct of the suit to such person as it may deem proper, and may make such order in any particular case as it may deem just for placing the defendant on the record on the same footing in regard to costs as other parties having a common interest with him in the matters in question.

Rule 8th.—In all the above cases the persons who, according to the present practice of the Court, would be necessary parties to the suit, shall be served with notice of the decree, and after such notice they shall be bound by the proceedings in the same manner as if they had been originally made parties to the suit, and they may, by an order of Court, have liberty to attend the proceedings under the decree; and any party so served may, within such time as shall in that behalf be prescribed by the rule or order to be made by the said Courts respectively in that behalf, apply to the Court to add to the decree.

Rule 9th.—In all suits concerning real or personal estate which is vested in trustees under a will, settlement, or otherwise, such trustees shall represent the persons beneficially interested under the trust, in the same manner and to the same extent as the executors or administrators in suits concerning personal estate represent the persons beneficially interested in such personal estate, and in such cases it shall not be necessary to make the persons beneficially interested under the trusts parties to the suit, but the Court may upon consideration of the matter on the hearing, if it shall so think fit, order such persons or any of them to be made parties.

XXII. The practice of setting down a cause merely on an objection for want of parties to the suit shall be abolished.

XXIII. If in any suit or other proceeding before any of the said Courts, it shall appear to the Court that any deceased person who was interested in the matters in question has no legal personal representative, it shall be lawful for the Court either to proceed in the absence of any person representing the estate of such deceased person, or to appoint some person to represent such estate for all the purposes of the suit or other proceeding, on such notice to such person or persons, if any, as the Court shall think fit, either especially or generally by public advertisements; and the order so made by the said Court, and any orders consequent thereon, shall bind the estate of such deceased person, in the same manner in every respect as if there had been a duly constituted legal personal representative of such deceased person and such legal personal representative had been a party to the suit or proceeding, and had duly appeared and submitted his rights and interests to the protection of the Court.

XXIV. It shall be lawful for any person claiming to be a creditor, or a specific pecuniary or residuary legatee, or the next of kin, or some or one of the next of kin of a deceased person, to apply for and obtain as of course, without bill or claim filed, or any other preliminary proceedings, a summons from a Judge of any of the said Courts, requiring the executor or administrator, as the case may be, of such deceased person, to attend before him at chambers for the purpose of showing cause why an order for the administration of the personal estate of the deceased should not be granted, and upon proof by affidavit of the due service of such summons, or, on the appearance in person, or by his solicitor or counsel, of such executor or administrator, and upon proof by affidavit of such other matters, if any, as such Judge shall require, it shall be lawful for such Judge, if in his discretion he shall think fit so to do, to make the usual order for the administration of the estate of the deceased, with such variations, if any, as the circumstances of the case may require, and the order so made shall have the force and effect of a decree to the like effect made on the hearing of a cause or claim between the same parties; provided that such Judge shall have full discretionary power to grant or refuse such order, or to give any special directions touching the carriage or execution of such order, and in the case of applications for any such order by two or more different persons or classes of persons, to grant the same to such one or more of the claimants, or of the classes of claimants, as he may think fit; and if the Judge shall think proper, the carriage of the order may subsequently be given to such party interested, and upon such terms as the Judge may direct.

XXV. A duplicate or copy of such summons shall, previously to the service thereof, be filed in the office of the registrar or other proper officer of the Court to a Judge whereof such application for a summons shall be made, and no service thereof upon any executor or administrator shall be of any validity unless the copy so served shall be countersigned by such registrar as an indication of the filing thereof, and the filing of such summons shall have the same effect with respect to lis pendens as the filing of a bill or claim.

XXVI. It shall be lawful for any person claiming to be a creditor of any deceased person, or interested under his will, to apply for and obtain in a summary way, in the manner hereinbefore provided with respect to the personal estate of a deceased person, an order for the administration of the immovable estate of a deceased person, being a Hindoo or a Mahomedan, or for the administration of the real estate of a deceased person, not being a Hindoo or a Mahomedan, where the whole of such real estate is by devise vested in trustees who are by the will empowered to sell such real estate, and authorized to give receipts for the rents and profits thereof, and for the produce of the sale of such real estates and all the provisions hereinbefore contained with respect to the application for such order, in relation to the personal estate of a deceased person and consequent thereon, shall extend and be applicable to applications for such orders as hereinbefore mentioned with respect to immoveable or real estate.

XXVII. It shall be lawful for the Court, in any suit for the foreclosure of the equity of redemption in any mortgaged property, upon the request of the mortgagee or of any subsequent incumbrancer, or of the mortgagor, or any person claiming under them respectively, to direct a sale of such property instead of a foreclosure of such equity of redemption on such terms as the Court may think fit to direct, and if the Court shall so think fit without previously determining the priorities of incumbrances, or giving the usual or any time to redeem; provided that if such request shall be made by any subsequent incumbrancer, or by the mortgagor, or by any person claiming under them respectively, the Court shall not direct any such sale without the consent of the mortgagee, or the persons claiming under him, unless the party making such request shall deposit in Court a reasonable sum of money, to be fixed by the Court, for the purpose of securing the performance of such terms as the Court may think fit to impose on the party making such request.

XXVIII. No suit in any of the said Courts shall be dismissed by reason only of the misjoinder of persons as plaintiffs therein, but wherever it shall appear to the Court that notwithstanding the conflict of interest in the co-plaintiffs, or the want of interest in some of the plaintiffs, or the existence of some ground of defence affecting some or one of the plaintiffs, the plaintiffs or some or one of them are or is entitled to relief, the Court shall have power to grant such relief, and to modify the decree according to the special circumstances of the case, and for that purpose to direct such amendments, if any, as may be necessary, and at the hearing, before such amendments are made, to treat any one or more of the plaintiffs as if he or they was or were a defendant or defendants in the suit, and the remaining or other plaintiff or plaintiffs was or were the only plaintiff or plaintiffs on the record; and where there is a misjoinder of plaintiffs and the plaintiff having an interest shall have died leaving a plaintiff on the record without an interest, the Court may, at the hearing of the cause, order the cause to be revived, as may appear just, and proceed. The direction of the cause if it shall see fit, and such other directions as to costs or otherwise as may appear just and expedient.

XXIX. No suit in any of the said Courts shall be open to objection on the ground that a merely declaratory decree or order is sought thereby, and it shall be lawful for the Court to make binding declarations of right without granting consequential relief.

XXX. It shall be lawful for the Court to adjudicate on questions arising between parties notwithstanding that they may be some only of the parties interested in the property respecting which the question may have arisen, or that the property in question is comprised with other property in the same settlement, will, or other instrument, without making the other parties interested in the property respecting which the question may have arisen, or interested under the same settlement, will, or other instrument, parties to the suit, and without requiring the whole trusts and purposes of the settlement, will, or other instrument to be executed under the direction of the Court, and without taking the accounts of the trustees or other accounting parties, or ascertaining the particulars or amount of the property touching which the question or questions may have arisen; provided always, that if the Court shall be of opinion that the application is fraudulent or collusive, or for some other reason ought not to be entertained, it shall have power to refuse to make the order prayed.

XXXI. Upon any suit in any of the said Courts becoming abated by death, marriage or otherwise, or defective by reason of some change or transmission of interest or liability, it shall not be necessary to exhibit any bill of revivor or supplemental bill in order to obtain the usual order to revive such suit, or the usual or necessary decree or order to carry on the proceedings; but an order to the effect of the usual order to revive, or of the usual supplemental decree, may be obtained as of course, upon an allegation of the abatement of such suit or of the same having become defective, and of the change or transmission of interest or liability; and an order so obtained, when served upon the party or parties who, according to the present practice of the said Court, would be defendant or defendants to the bill of revivor or supplemental bill, shall, from the time of such service, be binding on such party or parties, in the same manner in every respect as if such order had been regularly obtained according to the existing practice of the said Courts, and such party or parties shall thenceforth become a party or parties to the suit, and shall be bound to enter an appearance thereto in the office of the registrar or other officer of the Court within such time and in like manner as if he or they had been duly served with process to appear to a bill of revivor or supplemental bill filed against him; provided that it shall be open to the party or parties so served, within such time after service as shall be in that behalf prescribed by any rule or order to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf, to apply to the Court by motion or petition to discharge such order on any ground which would have been open to him on a bill of revivor or supplemental bill, stating the previous proceedings in the suit and the alleged change or transmission of interest or liability, and praying the usual relief consequent thereon; provided also, that if any party so served shall be under any disability, other than coverture, such order shall be of no force or effect as against such party until a guardian or guardians ad litem shall have been duly appointed for such party, and such time shall have elapsed thereafter as shall be prescribed by any rule or order to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf.

XXXII. It shall not be necessary to exhibit any supplemental bill in any of the said Courts for the purpose only of stating or putting in issue facts or circumstances which may have occurred after the institution of any suit; but such facts or circumstances may be introduced by way of amendment into the original bill of complaint in the suit, if the cause is otherwise in such a state as to allow of an amendment being made in the bill, and if not, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to state such facts or circumstances on the record, in such manner, and subject to such rules and regulations, with respect to the proof thereof, and the affording the defendant leave and opportunity of answering and meeting the same, as shall in that behalf be prescribed, by any rule or order to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively.

XXXIII. It shall be lawful for the Court in any case where any account is required to be taken, to give such special directions, if any, as it may think fit, with respect to the mode in which the account should be taken or vouched, and such special directions may be given either by the decree or order directing such account, or by any subsequent order or orders, upon its appearing to the Court that the circumstances of the case are such as to require such special directions, and particularly it shall be lawful for the Court, in cases where it shall think fit so to do, to direct that in taking the account, the books of account in which the accounts required to be taken have been kept, or any of them, shall be taken as prima facie evidence of the truth of the matters therein contained, with liberty to the parties interested to take such objections thereto as they may be advised.

XXXIV. If after a suit shall have been instituted in any of the said Courts in relation to any real estate, it shall appear to the Court that it will be necessary or expedient that the said real estate, or any part thereof, should be sold for the purposes of such suit, it shall be lawful for the said Court to direct the same to be sold at any time after the institution thereof, and such sale shall be as valid to all intents and purposes as if directed to be made by a decree or decretal order on the hearing of such cause; and any party to the suit in possession of such estate, or in receipt of the rents and profits thereof, shall be compelled to deliver up such possession or receipt to the purchaser or such other person as the Court shall direct.

XXXV. Where any real or immoveable or any personal property shall form the subject of any proceedings in any of the said Courts, and the Court shall be satisfied that the same will be more than sufficient to answer all the claims thereon, which ought to be provided for in such suit, it shall be lawful for the said Court, at any time after the commencement of such proceedings, to allow to the parties interested therein, or any one or more of them, the whole or part of the annual incomes of such real or immoveable property, or a part of such personal property, or a part or the whole of the income thereof, up to such time as the said Court shall direct, and for that purpose to make such orders as may appear to the said Court necessary or expedient.

XXXVI. Upon application, by motion or petition, to any of the said Courts in any suit depending therein for an injunction, or a receiver, or to dissolve an injunction or discharge an order appointing a receiver, the answer of the defendant shall, for the purpose of evidence on such motion or petition, be regarded merely as an affidavit of the defendant, and affidavits may be received and read in opposition thereto.

XXXVII. In case any of the directions herein contained with respect to the practice and course of proceedings in any of the said Courts shall, by mistake of parties, fail to be followed in any suit or proceeding in any of the said Courts, it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall think fit, upon payment of such costs as such Court shall direct, to make such order giving effect to and rectifying such proceedings as may be justified by the merits of the case.

XXXVIII. In cases where, according to the present practice of the said Courts, they decline to grant equitable relief until the legal title or right of the party or parties seeking such relief shall have been established in a proceeding at law, the said Court, sitting as a Court of Equity, may itself determine such title or right, without requiring the parties to proceed at law to establish the same.

XXXIX. The Judges of the said Courts respectively may, from time to time, make General Rules and Orders for carrying the purposes of this Act into effect, and for regulating the times and form and mode of proceeding, and generally the practice of the said Court, in respect of the matters to which this Act relates, and for regulating the fees and allowances to all officers of the said Court and solicitors thereof, in respect to such matters, and, so far as may be found expedient, for altering the course of proceeding hereinbefore prescribed in respect to the matters to which this Act relates or any of them, and such Rules and Orders may, from time to time, be rescinded or altered by the like authority, and all such Rules and Orders shall be subject to be confirmed or disallowed by the Governor General of India in Council, and to be altered or rescinded by Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, in Council, in the same manner as the like Rules and Orders would have been, if made by the said Courts respectively under their general or statutory power of making Rules.

XL. This Act shall extend to suits and proceedings on the Equity side only of the said Supreme Courts, and in the construction of this Act the words "Bill of Complaint" shall mean and include "Information," the word "Affidavit" shall mean and include "Affirmation" in cases where affirmation is allowed.

XLI. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the day of provided that it shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts respectively to make and issue any such Rules or Orders as aforesaid at any time after the passing of this Act, so as the same be not made to take effect before the time appointed for the commencement of this Act.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be reconsidered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 1st day of July next.

J. P. GRANT,

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

*Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 8th April, 1853.*

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 8th April, 1853:

ACT NO. — OF 1853.

An Act to facilitate the removal of nuisances and encroachments below high water mark in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba.

WHEREAS there is a large sea shore in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba, and it is expedient, with a view to the safe navigation of the harbour of Bombay and to the public interests generally, to facilitate the removal of nuisances, obstructions and encroachments below high water mark in the said harbour, or upon or about the shores of the said Islands; It is enacted as follows:—

I. It shall be lawful for the Collector of Land Revenue at Bombay to give notice requiring the removal of any nuisance, obstruction or encroachment any where below high water mark in the said harbour of Bombay, or upon or about the shores of the said Islands. Such notice shall be given by affixing the same in some conspicuous place on or near to the encroachment, obstruction or nuisance complained of, and by publication thereof in the Bombay Government Gazette, and shall state that unless the nuisance, obstruction or encroachment be removed or abated within one month, the same will be removed or abated by the said Collector. Such notice may be in the Form, No. 1, in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like effect.

II. If any person shall deny the right of the said Collector to effect such abatement or removal, he shall, within one month after such notice shall have been given as aforesaid, apply to the Supreme Court of Judicature at Bombay, by petition, setting forth the grounds of his alleged right, and praying that the said Collector may be restrained from causing such abatement or removal, and the said Court may thereupon (on the petitioner's giving sufficient security for costs), give such directions, and make such orders as the said Court may think just, and the said Court may also make an order for restraining the alleged nuisance, obstruction or encroachment from being extended, or from being abated or removed by the said Collector until after adjudication upon the said petition, or the dismissal thereof for want of prosecution.

III. No person shall be allowed, after the expiration of such period of one month, to present any such petition as aforesaid, unless on satisfactorily accounting to the said Court for the delay.

IV. If no such petition shall be presented within the said period of one month, or if the same be presented and determined against the right of the petitioner, or be dismissed for want of prosecution, it shall be lawful for the Collector to cause such abatement or removal as aforesaid by any person or persons to be authorized by warrant under his hand, and such warrant may be in the Form, No. 2, in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like effect, and the said Collector, and any person acting under his warrant, shall not be answerable for any damage unavoidably occasioned in the removal of any such nuisance, obstruction or encroachment.

V. The said Collector may sell the materials of any encroachment or obstruction removed under this Act, and may apply the proceeds of sale in or towards payment of the expenses of the removal, and if any surplus shall remain, the same shall be forfeited, and be paid and applied in such way as the Governor of Bombay in Council shall direct.

VI. Nothing in this Act shall prejudice or affect the rights of the East India Company as trustees for the Crown in any part of the said harbour, or of the sea shore of the said Islands, or preclude or interfere with any such proceedings, civil or criminal, for abating such nuisances and encroachments as aforesaid, as might have been had if this Act had not been passed.

VII. The words "high water mark," in this Act shall mean the ordinary line of high water at monsoon tides.

F O R M N o . 1 .

Notice is hereby given by the Collector of Land Revenue in Bombay under Act of 1853, that (described the encroachment) is to be removed within one month from the date hereof, otherwise the same will be removed by the said Collector under the authority of the said Act, dated the day of in the Year of our Lord Signature of Collector.

The Wellington Endowment.

Fort William, Home Department,
The 15th February, 1853.

NOTIFICATION.—The Most Noble the Governor-General of India in Council, has the honor of laying before the Officers of the Civil and Military Services of the Hon'ble East India Company, and before the community in the Presidency of Bengal, the following copy of a letter which has been addressed to him by the Earl of Derby, Her Majesty's Prime Minister:

Downing Street, 8th December, 1852.

MY LORD.—The universal desire felt by all classes to do honor to the Memory of the Duke of Wellington will probably lead to the erection of Statues and other Monuments in many of the principal towns in the Kingdom, some of which have indeed already taken steps in this direction. But projects of this description, however much they may contribute to the ornament of the respective localities, and however gratifying they may be to the feelings of their inhabitants, can possess little more than local interest, can be joined in by comparatively few of the population, and are not calculated to confer any substantial benefit upon the community. With a view to erect a Monument to the Memory of the Great Duke, to which all may contribute, which shall be worthy of its object and of the Nation, and which shall be of permanent and important advantage to that Service of which he was long the head and the ornament, it is proposed to erect and endow by Public Subscription, a School or College, to bear the name of the Duke of Wellington, for the gratuitous or nearly gratuitous Education of Orphan Children of Indigent and Meritorious Officers of the Army. Institutions, more or less national, already exist, in which the advantages of such an education can be obtained by the children of Soldiers, of Seamen, of Naval Officers and of the Clergy; but no such provision has been made in favour of Officers of the Army, a class of men peculiarly liable to casualties, by which their families are often left in a condition of the most painful pecuniary embarrassment, and under circumstances in which the necessarily stringent Regulations of the War Office, preclude the possibility of any relief from Public Funds.

The execution of the proposed plan, and the scale upon which it can be undertaken, must depend on the degree of support given by the country to the object contemplated. It may be assumed that each capital sum subscribed of £1,000, representing a permanent Annuity of about £80, will provide for all time to come, exclusive of the expense of building, for the education of one child; and a considerable sum will be required for the erection of a building which shall be worthy of the proposed object. No payment will be required until the total sum subscribed shall amount to £1,00,000, when application is proposed to be made for vesting the Capital in Trustees, to be nominated in the first instance by Her Majesty from among the subscribers, and to be incorporated, as in the case of Harrow, Rugby, the Charter House, and others.

Donations may be made payable by instalments spread over two, three, or four years.

Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, have been pleased to signify their approval of the project, and to place their names at the head of the Subscription List for the respective sums of £1,000 and £500.

I have the honor to be,

My LORD,

Your obedient Servant,

(Signed) DERBY.

The Governor General in Council feels assured, that for such an object all special solicitation would be superfluous.

He feels assured that every man among us will give with alacrity such aid, as he can afford, towards preserving in grateful memory, through future ages, the name of the greatest Soldier that England ever saw, by associating with it an Institution which, through years to come, will provide for thousands of Soldiers' orphans the rich advantages of a sound education.

All who are so disposed are invited to transmit their subscriptions to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, the Secretary to the Government North-Western Provinces, or the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, as may be most convenient to them.

Lists will be published from time to time, and the subscriptions when closed, will be transmitted to England.

J. P. GRANT,

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

THE COMMITTEE of the WELLINGTON ENDOWMENT, beg to acknowledge the receipt of the following subscriptions for the endowment of a College in honor of "the greatest soldier that England ever saw."

*Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
the 1st April, 1853.*

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 1st of April, 1853.

ACT NO. —— OF 1853.

An Act to amend the practice and course of proceeding on the Equity side of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the practice and course of proceeding on the Equity side of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George and Bombay. It is enacted as follows:

I. Every bill of complaint to be filed in any of the said Courts after the time hereinafter appointed for the commencement of this Act, shall contain, as concisely as may be, a narrative of the material facts, matters and circumstances on which the plaintiff relies, such narrative being divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively, and each paragraph containing, as nearly as may be, a separate and distinct statement or allegation, and shall pray specifically for the relief which the plaintiff may conceive himself entitled to, and also for general relief, but such bill of complaint shall not contain any interrogatories for the examination of the defendant.

II. Within a time, to be limited by the rules or orders to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf, the plaintiff in any suit in any of the said Courts commenced by bill may, if he requires an answer from any defendant thereto, file in the sworn clerk's or other proper office of the said Court, interrogatories for the examination of the defendant or defendants, or such of them from whom he shall require an answer, and deliver to the defendant or defendants so required to answer, or to his or their solicitor, a copy of such interrogatories, or of such of them as shall be applicable to the particular defendant or defendants, and no defendant shall be called upon or required to put in any answer to a bill unless interrogatories shall have been so filed, and a copy thereof delivered to him or his solicitor, within the time so to be limited, or within such further time as the Court shall think fit to direct.

III. Whether the plaintiff in any suit in any of the said Courts shall or shall not require an answer from the defendant, or any one or more of the defendants to the bill, such defendant or defendants may, without leave of the Court, put in a plea, answer, or demurrer to the plaintiff's bill within the time now allowed to the defendant for demurring alone to a bill, or within such other time as shall be fixed by any rules or orders to be framed by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf; but after that time a defendant or defendants not required to answer the plaintiff's bill shall not be at liberty to put in a plea, answer, or demurrer to the bill, without leave of the Court; provided that the power of the Court to grant further time for pleading, answering, or demurring to any bill, upon the application of any defendant or defendants thereto, whether required to answer the bill or not, shall remain in full force, and shall not be in any wise prejudiced or affected; provided also that if the Court shall grant any further time to any defendant for pleading, answering or demurring to the bill, the plaintiff's right to move for a decree under the provisions hereinafter contained shall in the mean time be suspended.

IV. The answer of the defendant to any bill of complaint in any of the said Courts may contain not only the answer of the defendant to the interrogatories so filed as aforesaid, but such statements material to the case as the defendant may think it necessary or advisable to set forth therein, and such answer shall also be divided into paragraphs, numbered consecutively, each paragraph containing, as nearly as may be, a separate and distinct statement or allegation.

V. The plaintiff in any suit commenced by bill shall be at liberty, at any time after the time allowed to the defendant for answering the same shall have expired (but before replication), to move the Court, upon such notice as shall in that behalf be prescribed by any rule or order to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively, for such decree or decretal order as he may think himself entitled to, and the plaintiff and defendant respectively shall be at liberty to file affidavits in support of and in opposition to the motion so to be made, and to use the same on the hearing of such motion; and if such motion shall be made after an answer filed in the cause the answer shall, for the purposes of the motion, be treated as an affidavit.

VI. Upon any such motion for a decree or decretal order, it shall be discretionary with the Court to grant or refuse the motion, or to make an order giving such directions for or with respect to the further prosecution of the suit as the circumstances of the case may require, and to make such order as to costs as it may think right.

VII. The practice of excepting to bills, answers and other proceedings in the said Courts for impertinence, shall be, and the same is hereby abolished; provided that it shall be lawful for any of the said Courts to direct the costs occasioned by any impertinent matter introduced into any proceeding in the said Court to be paid by the party introducing the same, upon application being made to the Court for that purpose.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Court upon the application of the plaintiff in any suit in any of the said Courts, whether commenced by bill or by claim, and as to a suit commenced by bill, whether the defendant may or may not have been required to answer the bill, or may or may not have been interrogated as to the possession of documents, to make an order for the production v. any defendant, ~~and~~ ^{and} oath, of such of the documents in his possession or power relating to matters in question in the suit as the Court shall think right, and the Court may deal with such documents when produced in such manner as shall appear just.

IX. It shall be lawful for any defendant in any suit, whether commenced by bill or by claim, but in suits commenced by bill which the defendant is required to answer, not until after he shall have put in a sufficient answer to the bill, and without filing any cross bill of discovery, to file, in the sworn clerk's or other proper office of the Court wherein such suit is pending, interrogatories for the examination of the plaintiff, to which shall be prefixed a concise statement of the subjects on which a discovery is sought, and to deliver a copy of such interrogatories to the plaintiff or his solicitor, and such plaintiff shall be bound to answer such interrogatories, in like manner as if the same had been contained in a bill of discovery filed by the defendant against him on the day when such interrogatories shall have been filed, and as if the defendant to such bill of discovery had on the same day duly appeared; and the practice of the Court with reference to excepting to answers for insufficiency, or for scandal, shall extend and be applicable to answers put in to such interrogatories: provided that in determining the materiality or relevancy of any such answer, or of any exception thereto, the Court is to have regard, in suits commenced by bill, to the statement contained in the original bill, and in the answer which may have been put in thereto by the defendant exhibiting such interrogatories for the examination of the plaintiff, and in suits commenced by claim, to the statements therein, and in any affidavits which may have been filed either in support thereof or in opposition thereto; provided also that a defendant, if he shall think fit so to do, may exhibit a cross bill of discovery against the plaintiff, instead of filing interrogatories for his examination.

X. It shall be lawful for the Court, upon the application of any defendant in any suit, whether commenced by bill or by claim, but as to suits commenced by bill where the defendant is required to answer the plaintiff's bill, not until after he has put in a full and sufficient answer to the bill, unless the Court shall make any order to the contrary, to make an order for the production by the plaintiff in such suit, on oath, of such of the documents in his possession or power relating to the matter in question in the suit as the Court shall think right, and the Court may deal with such documents when produced in such manner as shall appear just.

XI. Every plea, answer, disclaimer, or examination may be filed without any further or other formality than is required in the swearing and filing of an affidavit.

XII. In suits commenced in any of the said Courts by bill, where notice of motion for a decree or decretal order shall not have been given, or, having been given, where a decree or decretal order shall not have been made thereon, issue shall be joined by filing a replication, in the form or to the effect of the replication now in use in the said Courts respectively, and where a defendant shall not have been required to answer and shall not have answered the plaintiff's bill, he shall be considered to have traversed the case made by the bill.

XIII. Where a defendant to a suit in any of the said Courts commenced by bill shall not have been required to answer the bill, and shall not have answered the same, such defendant shall be at liberty to move to dismiss the bill for want of prosecution, at such times and under such circumstances, and subject to such restrictions, as shall be in that behalf prescribed by any rules or orders to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf.

XIV. Every affidavit to be used in the said Courts shall be divided into paragraphs, and every paragraph shall be numbered consecutively, and, as nearly as may be, shall be confined to a distinct portion of the subject.

XV. When any suit commenced in any of the said Courts by bill shall be at issue, the Court or a Judge thereof may, upon the application of any of the parties to the suit, and by consent of all the other parties thereto, make an order that the parties shall be at liberty to verify their respective cases by affidavit, and such cases may thereupon be verified accordingly. If any one or more of the parties, who shall not have a sufficient interest in the matters in question to require the evidence to be oral, shall not consent to the making of such order, the Court, or a judge thereof, may make the same without the consent of such party or parties.

XVI. If no such order shall be made, the evidence to be adduced in the cause after issue joined therein shall be taken orally before the Court, and the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents may be enforced in the manner for the time being in use on the Common Law side of the said Courts respectively; provided that the Court may order any particular witness or witnesses within the jurisdiction of the Court, or any witness or witnesses out of the jurisdiction of the Court, to be examined, upon interrogatories or otherwise, under a commission, and to make such order relating to such examination as the Court may think fit; and provided also, that affidavits of particular witnesses, or affidavits as to particular facts or circumstances, may by consent of the parties, or by leave of the Court obtained upon notice, be used on the hearing of any cause; such consent, and also the consent required by the XV. Section of this Act, may, with the approbation of the Court, be given by or on the part of married women or infants, or other persons under disability, being parties to any such suit.

XVII. Upon the hearing of any suit depending in any of the said Courts, whether commenced by bill or claim, and also upon the hearing of any motion, petition or other proceeding in any of the said Courts, the Court, if it shall see fit so to do, may, upon the application of any of the parties thereto, or of its own accord, require and enforce the attendance and oral examination before itself of any witness, or of any party to the suit, and may also require and enforce the production of any document or documents, and may direct the costs of the attendance and examination of such witness or party and of the production of such document or documents to be paid by such of the parties to the suit, or in such manner as it may think fit.

XVIII. Any party in any suit or matter depending on the Equity side of any of the said Courts may, by order of the Court or of a Judge thereof, issue a writ of subpoena ad testificandum or duces tecum, for the purpose of compelling the attendance of any person before the said Courts, or before the Commissioner or Commissioners specially appointed for the purpose, at a time and place to be specified in such subpoena, to give evidence and produce documents in support of or in opposition to any claim, motion, petition, or other proceeding before the Court; and every person served with such subpoena shall be bound to attend in pursuance thereof, and to produce documents, and to give evidence, in like manner and subject to the same rules as a witness subpoenaed to attend or produce documents upon the trial of any cause in the said Court.

XIX. Any person who shall make an affidavit which shall be used or filed by any party to a suit in any of the said Courts, may, by the order of the Court or of a Judge thereof, be subjected to oral cross-examination by or before the Court, or a Commissioner or Commissioners to be appointed for that purpose, and to be subpoenaed to attend for that purpose, and to produce any document or documents, at a time and place to be specified in the subpoena; and any person so subpoenaed shall be bound to attend and produce such document or documents in pursuance of such subpoena, in the same manner, and subject to the same rules, as a witness subpoenaed to attend and to give evidence or produce documents on the trial of a cause, and such person may be cross-examined and re-examined orally; provided that the Court shall always have a discretionary power of acting upon such evidence as may be before it at the time, and of making such interim orders as may appear necessary to meet the justice of the case.

XX. The costs of the attendance of any person, for the purpose of cross-examination as aforesaid, and of the said cross-examination and re-examination, shall be paid by the parties respectively, in like manner as if the person so attending to be cross-examined were the witness of the party cross-examining, and shall be deemed costs in the cause of such parties respectively, unless the Court shall think fit otherwise to direct.

XXI. It shall not be competent to any defendant in any suit in any of the said Courts to take any objection for want of parties to such suit, in any case to which the rules hereinafter set forth extend, and such rules shall be deemed and taken as part of the law and practice of the said Courts respectively, and any law or practice of any of the said Courts inconsistent therewith shall be and is hereby abrogated and annulled.

Rule 1st.—Any residuary legatee or next of kin may, without serving the remaining residuary legatees or next of kin, have a decree for the administration of the personal estate of a deceased person.

Rule 2nd.—Any legatee interested in a legacy charged upon real estate, and any person interested in the proceeds of real estate directed to be sold, may, without serving any other legatee or person interested in the proceeds of the estate, have a decree for the administration of the estate of a deceased person.

Rule 3rd.—Any residuary devisee or heir may, without serving any co-residuary devisee or co-heir, have the like decree.

Rule 4th. Any one of several cestuis que trust under any deed or instrument may, without serving any other of such cestuis que trust, have a decree for the execution of the trusts of the deed or instrument.

Rule 5th.—In all cases of suits for the protection of property pending litigation, and in all cases in the nature of waste, one person may sue on behalf of himself and of all persons having the same interest.

Rule 6th.—Any executor, administrator or trustee may obtain a decree against any one legatee, next of kin, or cestuis que trust, for the administration of the estate or the execution of the trusts.

Rule 7th.—In all the above cases the Court, if it shall see fit, may require any other person or persons to be made a party or parties to the suit, and may, if it shall see fit, give the conduct of the suit to such person as it may deem proper, and may make such order in any particular case as it may deem just for placing the defendant on the record on the same footing in regard to costs as other parties having a common interest with him in the matters in question.

Rule 8th.—In all the above cases the persons who, according to the present practice of the Court, would be necessary parties to the suit, shall be served with notice of the decree, and after such notice they shall be bound by the proceedings in the same manner as if they had been originally made parties to the suit, and they may, by an order of Court, have liberty to attend the proceedings under the decree; and any party so served may, within such time as shall in that behalf be prescribed by the rule or order to be made by the said Courts respectively in that behalf, apply to the Court to add to the decree.

Rule 9th.—In all suits concerning real or personal estate which is vested in trustees under a will, settlement, or otherwise, such trustees shall represent the persons beneficially interested under the trust, in the same manner and to the same extent as the executors or administrators in suits concerning personal estate represent the persons beneficially interested in such personal estate, and in such cases it shall not be necessary to make the persons beneficially interested under the trusts parties to the suit, but the Court may upon consideration of the matter on the hearing, if it shall so think fit, order such persons or any of them to be made parties.

XXII. The practice of setting down a cause merely on an objection for want of parties to the suit shall be abolished.

XXIII. If in any suit or other proceeding before any of the said Courts, it shall appear to the Court that any deceased person who was interested in the matters in question has no legal personal representative, it shall be lawful for the Court either to proceed in the absence of any person representing the estate of such deceased person, or to appoint some person to represent such estate for all the purposes of the suit or other proceeding, on such notice to such person or persons, if any, as the Court shall think fit, either specially or generally by public advertisements; and the order so made by the said Court, and any orders consequent thereon, shall bind the estate of such deceased person, in the same manner in every respect as if there had been a duly constituted legal personal representative of such deceased person and such legal personal representative had been a party to the suit or proceeding, and had duly appeared and submitted his rights and interests to the protection of the Court.

XXIV. It shall be lawful for any person claiming to be a creditor, or a specific pecuniary or residuary legatee, or the next of kin, or some or one of the next of kin of a deceased person, to apply for and obtain as of course, without bill or claim filed, or any other preliminary proceedings, a summons from a Judge of any of the said Courts, requiring the executor or administrator, as the case may be, of such deceased person, to attend before him at chambers for the purpose of showing cause why an order for the administration of the personal estate of the deceased should not be granted, and upon proof by affidavit of the due service of such summons, or on the appearance in person, or by his solicitor or counsel, of such executor or administrator, and upon proof by affidavit of such other matters, if any, as such Judge shall require, it shall be lawful for such Judge, if in his discretion he shall think fit so to do, to make the usual order for the administration of the estate of the deceased, with such variations, if any, as the circumstances of the case may require, and the order so made shall have the force and effect of a decree to the like effect made on the hearing of a cause or claim between the same parties; provided that such Judge shall have full discretionary power to grant or refuse such order, or to give any special directions touching the carriage or execution of such order, and in the case of applications for any such order by two or more different persons or classes of persons, to grant the same to such one or more of the claimants, or of the classes of claimants, as he may think fit; and if the Judge shall think proper, the carriage of the order may subsequently be given to such party interested, and upon such terms as the Judge may direct.

XXV. A duplicate or copy of such summons shall, previously to the service thereof, be filed in the office of the registrar or other proper officer of the Court to a Judge whereof such application for a summons shall be made, and no service thereof upon any executor or administrator shall be of any validity unless the copy so served shall be countersigned by such registrar as an indication of the filing thereof, and the filing of such summons shall have the same effect with respect to lis pendens as the filing of a bill or claim.

XXVI. It shall be lawful for any person claiming to be a creditor of any deceased person, or interested under his will, to apply for and obtain in a summary way, in the manner hereinbefore provided with respect to the personal estate of a deceased person, an order for the administration of the immovable estate of a deceased person, being a Hindoo or a Mahomedan, or for the administration of the real estate of a deceased person, not being a Hindoo or a Mahomedan, where the whole of such real estate is by devise vested in trustees who are by the will empowered to sell such real estate, and authorized to give receipts for the rents and profits thereof, and for the produce of the sale of such real estate; and all the provisions hereinbefore contained with respect to the application for such order, in relation to the personal estate of a deceased person and consequent thereon, shall extend and be applicable to applications for such orders as hereinbefore mentioned with respect to immoveable or real estate.

XXVII. It shall be lawful for the Court, in any suit for the foreclosure of the equity of redemption in any mortgaged property, upon the request of the mortgagee or of any subsequent incumbrancer, or of the mortgagor, or any person claiming under them respectively, to direct a sale of such property instead of a foreclosure of such equity of redemption on such terms as the Court may think fit to direct, and if the Court shall so think fit without previously determining the priorities of incumbrances, or giving the usual or any time to redeem; provided that if such request shall be made by any subsequent incumbrancer, or by the mortgagor, or by any person claiming under them respectively, the Court shall not direct any such sale without the consent of the mortgagee, or the persons claiming under him, unless the party making such request shall deposit in Court a reasonable sum of money, to be fixed by the Court, for the purpose of securing the performance of such terms as the Court may think fit to impose on the party making such request.

XXVIII. No suit in any of the said Courts shall be dismissed by reason only of the misjoinder of persons as plaintiffs therein, but wherever it shall appear to the Court that notwithstanding the conflict of interest in the co-plaintiffs, or the want of interest in some of the plaintiffs, or the existence of some ground of defense affecting some or one of the plaintiffs, the plaintiffs or some or one of them are or is entitled to relief, the Court shall have power to grant such relief, and to modify the decree according to the special circumstances of the case, and for that purpose to direct such amendments, if any, as may be necessary, and at the hearing, before such amendments are made, to treat any one or more of the plaintiffs as if he or they was or were a defendant or defendants in the suit, and the remaining or other plaintiff or plaintiffs was or were the only plaintiff or plaintiffs on the record; and where there is a misjoinder of plaintiffs and the plaintiff having an interest shall have died leaving a plaintiff on the record without an interest, the Court may, at the hearing of the cause, order the cause to stand revived, as may appear just, and proceed to a decision of the cause if it shall see fit, and to give such direction as to costs or otherwise as may appear just and expedient.

XXIX. No suit in any of the said Courts shall be open to objection on the ground that a merely declaratory decree or order is sought thereby, and it shall be lawful for the Court to make binding declarations of right without granting consequential relief.

XXX. It shall be lawful for the Court to adjudicate on questions arising between parties notwithstanding that they may be some only of the parties interested in the property respecting which the question may have arisen, or that the property in question is comprised with other property in the same settlement, will, or other instrument, without making the other parties interested in the property respecting which the question may have arisen, or interested under the same settlement, will, or other instrument, parties to the suit, and without requiring the whole trusts and purposes of the settlement, will, or other instrument to be executed under the direction of the Court, and without taking the accounts of the trustees or of the accounting parties, or ascertaining the particulars or amount of the property touching which the question or questions may have arisen; provided always, that if the Court shall be of opinion that the application is fraudulent or collusive, or for some other reason ought not to be entertained, it shall have power to refuse to make the order prayed.

XXXI. Upon any suit in any of the said Courts becoming abated by death, marriage or otherwise, or defective by reason of some change or transmission of interest or liability, it shall not be necessary to exhibit any bill of revivor or supplemental bill in order to obtain the usual order to revive such suit, or the usual or necessary decree or order to carry on the proceedings; but an order to the effect of the usual order to revive, or of the usual supplemental decree, may be obtained as of course, upon an allegation of the abatement of such suit or of the same having become defective, and of the change or transmission of interest or liability; and an order so obtained, when served upon the party or parties who, according to the present practice of the said Court, would be defendant or defendants to the bill of revivor or supplemental bill, shall, from the time of such service, be binding on such party or parties, in the same manner in every respect as if such order had been regularly obtained according to the existing practice of the said Courts, and such party or parties shall thenceforth become a party or parties to the suit, and shall be bound to enter an appearance thereto in the office of the registrar or other officer of the Court within such time and in like manner as if he or they had been duly served with process to appear to a bill of revivor or supplemental bill filed against him; provided that it shall be open to the party or parties so served, within such time after service as shall be in that behalf prescribed by any rule or order to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf, to apply to the Court by motion or petition to discharge such order on any ground which would have been open to him on a bill of revivor or supplemental bill, stating the previous proceedings in the suit to the alleged change or transmission of interest or liability, and praying the usual relief consequent thereon; provided also, that if any party so served shall be under any disability, other than coverture, such order shall be of no force or effect as against such party until a guardian or guardians ad litem shall have been duly appointed for such party, and such time shall have elapsed thereafter as shall be prescribed by any rule or order to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively in that behalf.

XXXII. It shall not be necessary to exhibit any supplemental bill in any of the said Courts for the purpose only of stating or putting in issue facts or circumstances which may have occurred after the institution of any suit; but such facts or circumstances may be introduced by way of amendment into the original bill of complaint in the suit, if the cause is otherwise in such a state as to allow of an amendment being made in the bill, and if not, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to state such facts or circumstances on the record, in such manner, and subject to such rules and regulations, with respect to the proof thereof, and the affording the defendant leave and opportunity of answering and meeting the same, as shall in that behalf be prescribed, by any rule or order to be made by the Judges of the said Courts respectively.

XXXIII. It shall be lawful for the Court in any case where any account is required to be taken, to give such special directions, if any, as it may think fit, with respect to the mode in which the account should be taken or vouched, and such special directions may be given either by the decree or order directing such account, or by any subsequent order or orders, upon its appearing to the Court that the circumstances of the case are such as to require such special directions, and particularly it shall be lawful for the Court, in cases where it shall think fit so to do, to direct that in taking the account, the books of account in which the accounts required to be taken have been kept, or any of them, shall be taken as prima facie evidence of the truth of the matters therein contained, with liberty to the parties interested to take such objections thereto as they may be advised.

XXXIV. If after a suit shall have been instituted in any of the said Courts in relation to any real estate, it shall appear to the Court that it will be necessary or expedient that the said real estate, or any part thereof, should be sold for the purposes of such suit, it shall be lawful for the said Court to direct the same to be sold at any time after the institution thereof, and such sale shall be as valid to all intents and purposes as if directed to be made by a decree or decretal order on the hearing of such cause; and any party to the suit in possession of such estate, or in receipt of the rents and profits thereof, shall be compelled to deliver up such possession or receipt to the purchaser or such other person as the Court shall direct.

XXXV. Where any real or immoveable or any personal property shall form the subject of any proceedings in any of the said Courts, and the Court shall be satisfied that the same will be more than sufficient to answer all the claims thereon, which ought to be provided for in such suit, it shall be lawful for the said Court, at any time after the commencement of such proceedings, to allow to the parties interested therein, or any one or more of them, the whole or part of the annual incomes of such real or immoveable property, or a part of such personal property, or a part or the whole of the income thereof, up to such time as the said Court shall direct, and for that purpose to make such orders as may appear to the said Court necessary or expedient.

XXXVI. Upon application, by motion or petition, to any of the said Courts in any suit depending therein for an injunction, or a receiver, or to dissolve an injunction or discharge an order appointing a receiver, the answer of the defendant shall, for the purpose of evidence on such motion or petition, be regarded merely as an affidavit of the defendant, and affidavits may be received and read in opposition thereto.

XXXVII. In case any of the directions herein contained with respect to the practice and course of proceedings in any of the said Courts shall, by mistake of parties, fail to be followed in any suit or proceeding in any of the said Courts, it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall think fit, upon payment of such costs as such Court shall direct, to make such order giving effect to and rectifying such proceedings as may be justified by the merits of the case.

XXXVIII. In cases where, according to the present practice of the said Courts, they decline to grant equitable relief until the legal title or right of the party or parties seeking such relief shall have been established in a proceeding at law, the said Court, sitting as a Court of Equity, may itself determine such title or right, without requiring the parties to proceed at law to establish the same.

XXXIX. The Judges of the said Courts respectively may, from time to time, make General Rules and Orders for carrying the purposes of this Act into effect, and for regulating the times and form and mode of proceeding, and generally the practice of the said Court, in respect of the matters to which this Act relates, and for regulating the fees and allowances to all officers of the said Court and solicitors thereof, in respect to such matters, and, so far as may be found expedient, for altering the course of proceeding hereinbefore prescribed in respect to the matters to which this Act relates or any of them, and such Rules and Orders may, from time to time, be rescinded or altered by the like authority, and all such Rules and Orders shall be subject to be confirmed or disallowed by the Governor General of India in Council, and to be altered or rescinded by Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, in Council, in the same manner as the like Rules and Orders would have been, if made by the said Courts respectively under their general or statutory power of making Rules.

XI. This Act shall extend to suits and proceedings on the Equity side only of the said Supreme Courts, and in the construction of this Act the words "Bill of Complaint" shall mean and include "Information," the word "Affidavit" shall mean and include "Affirmation" in cases where affirmation is allowed.

XII. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the day of provided that it shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts respectively to make and issue any such Rules or Orders as aforesaid at any time after the passing of this Act, so as the same be not made to take effect before the time appointed for the commencement of this Act.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be reconsidered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 1st day of July next.

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

*Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 8th April, 1853.*

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 8th April, 1853:

ACT NO. —— OF 1853.

An Act to facilitate the removal of nuisances and encroachments below high water mark in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba.

WHEREAS there is a large sea shore in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba, and it is expedient, with a view to the safe navigation of the harbour of Bombay and to the public interests generally, to facilitate the removal of nuisances, obstructions and encroachments below high water mark in the said harbour, or upon or about the shores of the said Islands; It is enacted as follows:—

I. It shall be lawful for the Collector of Land Revenue at Bombay to give notice requiring the removal of any nuisance, obstruction or encroachment anywhere below high water mark in the said harbour of Bombay, or upon or about the shores of the said Islands. Such notice shall be given by affixing the same in some conspicuous place on or near to the encroachment, obstruction or nuisance complained of, and by publication thereof in the Bombay Government Gazette, and shall state that unless the nuisance, obstruction or encroachment be removed or abated within one month, the same will be removed or abated by the said Collector. Such notice may be in the Form, No. 1, in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like effect.

II. If any person shall deny the right of the said Collector to effect such abatement or removal, he shall, within one month after such notice shall have been given as aforesaid, apply to the Supreme Court of Judicature at Bombay, by petition, setting forth the grounds of his alleged right, and praying that the said Collector may be restrained from causing such abatement or removal, and the said Court may thereupon (on the petitioner's giving sufficient security for costs), give such directions, and make such orders as the said Court may think just, and the said Court may also make an order for restraining the alleged nuisance, obstruction or encroachment from being extended, or from being abated or removed by the said Collector until after adjudication upon the said petition, or the dismissal thereof for want of prosecution.

III. No person shall be allowed, after the expiration of such period of one month, to present any such petition as aforesaid, unless on satisfactorily accounting to the said Court for the delay.

IV. If no such petition shall be presented within the said period of one month, or if the same be presented and determined against the right of the petitioner, or be dismissed for want of prosecution, it shall be lawful for the Collector to cause such abatement or removal as aforesaid by any person or persons to be authorized by warrant under his hand, and such warrant may be in the Form, No. 2, in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like effect, and the said Collector, and any person acting under his warrant, shall not be answerable for any damage unavoidably occasioned in the removal of any such nuisance, obstruction or encroachment.

V. The said Collector may sell the material of any encroachment or obstruction under this Act, and may apply the proceeds of sale in or towards payment of the expenses of the removal, and if any surplus shall remain the same shall be forfeited, and be paid and applied in such way as the Governor of Bombay in Council shall direct.

VI. Nothing in this Act shall prejudice or affect the rights of the East India Company as trustees for the Crown in any part of the said harbour, or of the sea shore of the said Islands, or preclude or interfere with any such proceedings, civil or criminal, for abating such nuisances and encroachments as aforesaid, as might have been had if this Act had not been passed.

VII. The words "high water mark," in this Act shall mean the ordinary line of high water at monsoon tides.

Fort William, Home Department,
The 15th February, 1853.

NOTIFICATION.—The Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council has the honor of laying before the Officers of the Civil and Military Services of the Honourable East India Company, and before the community in the Presidency of Bengal, the following copy of a letter which has been addressed to him by the Earl of Derby, Her Majesty's Prime Minister:

Downing Street, 8th December, 1852.

MY LORD.—The universal desire felt by all classes to do honor to the Memory of the Duke of Wellington will probably lead to the erection of Statues and other Monuments in many of the principal towns in the Kingdom, some of which have indeed already taken steps in this direction. But projects of this description, however much they may contribute to the ornament of the respective localities, and however gratifying they may be to the feelings of their inhabitants, can possess little more than local interest, can be joined in by comparatively few of the population, and are not calculated to confer any substantial benefit upon the community. With a view to erect a Monument to the Memory of the Great Duke, to which all may contribute, which shall be worthy of its object and of the Nation, and which shall be of permanent and important advantage to that Service of which he was long the head and the ornament, it is proposed to erect and endow by Public Subscription, a School or College, to bear the name of the Duke of Wellington, for the gratuitous or nearly gratuitous Education of Orphan Children of Indigent and Meritorious Officers of the Army. Institutions more or less national, already exist, in which the advantages of such an education can be obtained by the children of Soldiers, of Seamen, of Naval Officers and of the Clergy; but no such provision has been made in favour of Officers of the Army, a class of men, peculiarly liable to casualties, by which their families are often left in a condition of the most painful pecuniary embarrassment, and under circumstances in which the necessarily stringent Regulations of the War Office, preclude the possibility of any relief from Public Funds.

The execution of the proposed plan, and the scale upon which it can be undertaken, must depend on the degree of support given by the country to the object contemplated. It may be assumed that each capital sum subscribed of £1,000, representing a permanent Annuity of about £30, will provide for all time to come, exclusive of the expense of building, for the education of one child; and a considerable sum will be required for the erection of a building which shall be worthy of the proposed object. No payment will be required until the total sum subscribed shall amount to £1,00,000, when application is proposed to be made for vesting the Capital in Trustees, to be nominated in the first instance by Her Majesty from among the subscribers, and to be incorpora-ed, as in the case of Harrow, Rugby, the Charter House, and others.

Donations may be made payable by instalments spread over two, three, or four years.

Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert, have been pleased to signify their approval of the project, and to place their names at the head of the Subscription List for the respective sums of £1,000 and £500.

I have the honor to be,

My LORD,

Your obedient Servant,

(Signed) DERBY.

The Governor General in Council feel assured, that for such an object all special solicitation would be superfluous.

He feels assured that every man among us will give with alacrity such aid, as he can afford, towards preserving in grateful memory, through future ages, the name of the greatest Soldier that England ever saw, by associating with it an Institution which, through years to come, will provide for thousands of children's orphans the rich advantages of a sound education.

All who are so disposed are invited to transmit their subscriptions to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, the Secretary to the Government North-Western Provinces, or the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, as may be most convenient to them.

Lists will be published from time to time, and the subscriptions when closed, will be transmitted to England.

J. P. GRANT,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

THE COMMITTEE of the WELLINGTON ENDOWMENT, beg to acknowledge the receipt of the following subscriptions for the endowment of a College in honor of "the greatest soldier that England ever saw."
